Faith in the Living God, 2nd Edition John Polkinghorne, Michael Welker, 2019-04-12 In this book John Polkinghorne and Michael Welker explain how they understand faith in the living God Between them they offer a binocular vision from their twin perspectives to yield helpful insight in relation to the important issues Part of the fascination of this book is how two people with such different backgrounds approach central theological questions relating to the faith they both share Their concerns are truth rather than polemics reliability rather than simple certainty They seek to anchor their thought in concrete particulars rather than abstract generalizations They ask the questions that trouble the inquiring mind and meet head on the challenge as well as the reassurances of belief This second edition provides a new Preface and updated bibliographies

God and the History of the Universe Jarvis Streeter, 2016-03-22 The popular belief that a scientific understanding of reality is incompatible with a Christian one is simply wrong Some Christian understandings of reality do conflict with some scientific understandings But a thoroughly rational Christian understanding of the origin and history of the universe will be informed by the best scientific theories and the facts founded on them This book weaves a narrative of the origin and history of the universe from the perspective of contemporary science with a Christian understanding of God and of God's role in the origin and history of the universe At the center of this integrated narrative is the view that God who is pure unbounded Love is Creator the zest for life in the universe comes from God and God is the source of Truth Beauty and Goodness in the universe God is amazed and delighted at what God and the world has created God is saddened by ways creatures have fallen short of pure unbounded Love Truth Beauty and Goodness and God's pure unbounded Love keeps on trying to persuade all creatures toward Truth Beauty and Goodness

Christlikeness Robert P. Vande Kappelle, 2022-12-20 Human beings are happiest when they live virtuously For Jesus and his first followers living virtuously meant loving God and others as extensions of oneself However what began as an inclusive ethical way of life based on unconditional love gradually degenerated into an exclusive social and political religious movement that came to be known as Christendom Originally a continuation of Jewish messianism the Christian movement aligned itself with Platonic and Aristotelian elements comprising a marriage of specific elements of Greek philosophy with Roman imperialism What if instead of aligning with the dualist idealist exclusivist and supremacist Socratic movement perpetuated by Plato and his followers ancient Christians had aligned with the nondualist realist inclusivist and egalitarian Stoic movement spread by Zeno and his followers an ethical tradition that like the teachings of Jesus was guided by providential and natural law ethics The results of such a synthesis laid out in this innovative study are practical inspiring and transformative for they are based on the greatest vision possible for humanity a nondualist approach to life that counters authoritarian and exclusivist behavior fostered by supremacist political ethical and social religious ideologies Unlike Christendom based on ecclesiastical triumphalism the way of Christlikeness envisioned by Jesus for humanity is grounded in humility compassion service and love of others
