Quarterly Essay 22 Voting For Jesus Christianity And Politics In Australia:

Quarterly Essay 22 Voting for Jesus Amanda Lohrey, 2006-06-06 From the Hillsong Church to the Family First Party Australia appears to be experiencing an evangelical revival In Voting for Jesus Amanda Lohrey investigates that revival its shape and scope and what it means for the mainstream churches and the nation s politics She talks to young believers and analyses the machinations of the Christian Right She discusses with humour and insight the appeal of the megachurch the changing image of Jesus and the political theories of George Pell and Peter Jensen Voting for Jesus is also an essay about the use and abuse of religion in party politics Examining the success of Family First Lohrey argues that Christians in politics have far less influence than they would like the government uses them when convenient and otherwise disregards them Blending individual interviews with political argument she makes a subtle case for the blessings of secularism and the variety of spiritual encounters it makes possible When Peter Costello waved his arms in the Hillsong auditorium and Steve Fielding was catapulted into the Senate Christian spokesmen were quick to claim that Australia was undergoing a religious revival though no one thought to relay this information to Pope Benedict XVI In August 2005 the Pope issued a dire warning mainstream Christianity was dying out more quickly in Australia than anywhere else in the world Amanda Lohrey Voting for Jesus What a treat it was to read Voting for Jesus Amanda Lohrey provides a rich analysis of the intersection of Christianity and politics at the 2004 election full of humanity sincerity and salience Tim Costello When I first saw this Quarterly Essay in the National Library Bookshop I thought impatiently What the hell does Amanda Lohery know about Christianity The unequivocal answer is A damn sight more than I expected I found the essay insightful provocative and at times quite brilliant Paul Collins Amanda Lohrey has written two Quarterly Essays Groundswell The Rise of the Greens and Voting for Jesus Christianity and Politics in Australia She is also the author of the novella Vertigo and of the short story collection Reading Madame Bovary which won the Fiction Prize and the Steele Rudd Short Story Award in the 2011 Queensland Literary Awards Her novel The Philosopher s Doll was longlisted for the Miles Franklin Award and the International IMPAC Dublin Literary Award In 2012 she was awarded the Patrick White Literary Award

Quarterly Essay 24 No Fixed Address Robyn Davidson, 2006-11-24 After many thousands of years the nomads are disappearing swept away by modernity Robyn Davidson has spent a good part of her life with nomadic cultures in Australia north west India Tibet and the Indian Himalayas and she herself calls three countries home In this Quarterly Essay she draws on her unique experience to delineate a vanishing way of life In a time of environmental peril Davidson argues that the nomadic way with nature offers valuable lessons Cosmologies such as the Aboriginal Dreaming encode irreplaceable knowledge of the natural world and nomadic cultures emphasise qualities of tolerance adaptability and human interconnectedness She also explores a notable paradox that even as classical nomadism is disappearing hypermobility has become the hallmark of modern life For the privileged there is an almost unrestricted freedom of movement and an ever growing culture of transience and virtuality No Fixed Address is a Review of the Sociology of Religion devoted entirely to religion and politics is precisely to question the sense of a reconstruction of the mutual and simultaneous relations between these two spheres of social life What does this process mean and where is it taking us Secularisation in the Christian World Michael Snape,2016-04-01 The power of modernity to secularise has been a foundational idea of the western world Both social science and church history understood that the Christian religion from 1750 was deeply vulnerable to industrial urbanisation and the Enlightenment But as evidence mounts that countries of the European world experienced secularising forces in different ways at different periods the timing and causes of de Christianisation are now widely seen as far from straightforward Secularisation in the Christian World brings together leading scholars in the social history of religion and the sociology of religion to explore what we know about the decline of organised Christianity in Britain Europe the United States Canada and Australia The chapters tackle different strands themes comparisons and territories to demonstrate the diversity of approach thinking and evidence that has emerged in the last 30 years of scholarship into the religious past and present The volume includes both new research and essays of theoretical reflection by the most eminent academics It highlights historians and sociologists in both agreement and dispute With contributors from eight countries the volume also brings together many nations for the first consolidated international consideration of recent themes in de Christianisation With church historians and cultural historians and religious sociologists and sociologists of the godless society this book provides a state of the art guide to secularisation studies Australian Book Review ,2006 Believers Paul Collins,2008 Published to coincide with World Youth Day 2008 Handbook of Scientology James R. Lewis,2017-01-05 The Handbook of Scientology brings together a collection of fresh studies of the most persistently controversial of all contemporary New Religions In recent years increasing scholarly attention has been directed at the Church of Scientology resulting in a small tsunami of new scholarship We have finally reached a point in time where a book on Scientology need not restrict itself to basics Thus for example the historical chapters in the present volume are not really aimed at providing elementary facts on Scientology s background but rather focus on understanding how the Church of Scientology developed over the years In short the Handbook of Scientology will provide a wealth of new information on a topic that one might otherwise have thought exhausted Contributors are Matthew Charet Dorthe Refslund Christensen Carole M Cusack Bernard Doherty Marco Frenschkowski Liselotte Frisk Kjersti Helles y Don Jolly James R Lewis Renee Lockwood Andr s M t T th G bor D niel Nagy Johanna Petsche Erin Prophet Susan Raine David G Robertson Mikael Rothstein Lisbeth Tuxin Rubin Nicole S Ruskell Shannon Trosper Schorey Michelle Swainson Inga B rdsen T llefsen Hugh G Urban Donald A Westbrook and Benjamin Zeller Asking Big Questions Grenville J. R. Kent,2014-06-27 What do educated urban people think about God and why What factors logical emotional experiential or intuitive incline them towards belief or towards unbelief How do they balance these factors Why do many seem to be swing voters comfortable sitting on the fence unmotivated to move far either way What common ground do they share with Christianity What are their objections to Christian belief and practice and their misunderstandings Why do many people describe intuitive and emotional attraction to believing in God but resist it intellectually What apologetic approaches would make most sense specifically to educated urban Australians What media products do they enjoy and trust And how should these insights influence apologetics Grenville Kent asks these questions in one Australian demographic to help target Big Questions a documentary film series for Christian apologetics Anyone interested in apologetics evangelical media and the application of marketing research to evangelism will be interested in this study
