Par sa durée, son ampleur et sa violence, la Seconde Guerre mondiale n'a épargné aucun peuple ni aucun continent. L'ambition de cette Encyclopédie est de restituer ce conflit ses dimensions non pas seulement européennes mais véritablement planétaires. Œuvre d'une équipe internationale de cent soixante-quatre historiens, ce volume permet de rassembler et de confronter les connaissances les plus complètes de ce jour sur un des affrontements les plus meurtriers qu'ait connus le XX^e siècle. Les auteurs s'intéressent d'abord aux hommes et femmes civils et militaires, civils et anonymes qui ont été les acteurs ou les victimes de cette guerre totale. Ils analysent leurs actions et leur comportement, leurs espoirs, leurs peurs, leurs illusions, leur courage, parfois leur héroïsme. Et les traumatismes de tous ordres qu'ils ont subis dans un monde où l'horreur et la barbarie ont atteint des degrés inégalés. Une large place est galement faite aux dirigeants politiques et chefs militaires qui ont pensé, planifié et conduit ce conflit, comme aux innombrables protagonistes qui ont agi dans l'ombre au sein des services secrets ou des forces armées. Les principales théâtres d'opérations des conquêtes du III^e Reich, la bataille de l'Atlantique, des combats sur les fronts de l'Est ou du Pacifique, aux bombardements nucléaires d'août 1945 sont étudiés dans leurs particularités et leur interdépendance. L'ouvrage apporte aussi des éclairages précis et passionnants sur les aspects idéologiques, diplomatiques, stratégiques, économiques, sociaux et culturels d'une conflagration qui a bouleversé les structures et les consciences, les rapports entre les nations, ainsi que l'identité de chacune d'entre elles. Il permet ainsi de vivre cette guerre au plus près de sa vérité immédiate, de mieux en comprendre les tapes et les enjeux, comme d'en prouver toute la complexité. Étrangers dans la cité Lieven Saerens, 2005. Les témoins de Jéhovah face à Hitler Guy Canonici, 1998. Bien que la tolérance du régime de la République de Weimar était inévitable, que les Témoins de Jéhovah deviennent suspects au III^e Reich puis des adversaires résolus dans leur refus de se soumettre à l'idologie nazie et plus encore de porter les armes dans une Allemagne bientôt remilitarisée et homogénéisée.
