Queer Political Performance And Protest Routledge Advances In Sociology 41 41:

Queer Political Performance and Protest Benjamin Shepard, 2009-09-10 From the birth of the Gay Liberation through the rise of the AIDS Coalition to Unleash Power ACT UP in 1987 the global justice movement in 1994 the largest day of antiwar protest in world history in February 2003 the Republican National Convention protests in August 2004 and the massive immigrant rights rallies in the spring of 2006 the streets of cities around the world have been filled with a new theatrical model of protest Elements of fun creativity pleasure and play are cornerstones of this new approach toward protest and community building No movement has had a larger influence on the emergence of play in social movement activity than the gay liberation and queer activism of the past thirty years This book examines the role of play in gay liberation and queer activism and the ways in which queer notions of play have influenced a broad range of social movements Festivals as

Reparative Gender Politics Zorica Siročić, 2023-08-18 What explains the popularity and widespread appeal of numerous post Yugoslav feminist and LGBTQ festivals in the last decade This book argues that the millennial generation expresses reparative politics as a distinct type of activism through festivals Reparative political acting as identified here characteristically relies on playfulness and creativity interpretative gender dissent acceptance of organizational and programmatic messiness and hybridity belonging and positive affect The reparative politics is vital in a context that is marked by an individual and collective trauma of heteropatriarchy violent breakdown of the common state and post transitional economic precarity The book uses excerpts from programs interviews and observations collected through the multi sited ethnographic research Siro i s focus on contemporary activism in Southeastern Europe challenges the narrow geopolitical understanding of the recent feminist politics and refutes the common assumptions of a passive millennial generation Yet the book s relevance surpasses its area of study as it argues against the popular deriding of activist expressions as the merely cultural or merely aesthetic engagement In contrast the book claims that such activities urge a redefined understanding of political agency Festivals as Reparative Politics demonstrates that contemporary feminist festivals represent a distinct reformulation of contentious politics of gender whose constitutive principles can be exemplary for other types of political engagements Accessibility, Inclusion, and Diversity in Critical Event Studies Rebecca

Finkel, Briony Sharp, Majella Sweeney, 2018-09-14 Most early social research into planned events had the effect of broadcasting narratives of dominant cultures and privileged groups More recently however convergences of gender sexualities ethnicities age class religion and intersectional analyses and events studies have started to drive new critical understanding of the impacts of events on non mainstream non majority communities around the globe This timely book addresses current gaps in the literature surrounding issues of accessibility inclusion and diversity in various event landscapes Structured into four parts covering the main types of events the chapters present original topics using innovative methodological approaches Each chapter employs a case study to illustrate the key intertwining issues in these various experiential realms Further the chapters are all cross or interdisciplinary drawing on gender sexualities cultural race ethnicity studies as well as multiple literatures that feed into critical events studies and exploring a variety of global examples This significant book opens the path to further research on the role and importance of accessibility inclusion and diversity in events environments worldwide It will be of interest to academics and researchers of critical event studies as well as a number of related social science disciplines forum for inter-american research Vol 5 Wilfried
