Questions Of Taste The Philosophy Of Wine:

Questions of Taste Barry C. Smith, 2007 Essays illuminating the philosophical issues surrounding our love of wine

Wine and Philosophy Fritz Allhoff, 2009-02-09 In Wine Tasting Wine The Beauty of Wine The Metaphysics of Wine and The Politics Economics of Wine Accessible to a general audience while at the same time covering some serious philosophical ground Incorporates traditional areas of philosophical study including philosophy of language philosophy of perception aesthetics metaphysics ethics and political philosophy A great complimentary text to any guided tour visit to the Napa Valley or other wineries

Questions of Taste Barry C Smith, 2013-02-05 Interest in and consumption of wine have grown exponentially in recent years and there has been a corresponding increase in consumers knowledge of wine which in turn has generated discussions about the meaning and value of wine in our lives and how renowned wine critics influence our subjective assessment of quality and shape public tastes Wine first played a part in Western philosophy at the symposium of the early Greek philosophers where it enlivened and encouraged discussion During the Enlightenment David Hume recommended drinking wine with friends as a cure for philosophical melancholy while Immanuel Kant thought wine softened the harsher sides of men s characters and made their company more convivial In Questions of Taste the first book in any language on the subject philosophers such as Roger Scruton and wine professionals like Andrew Jefford author of the award winning book The New France turn their attention to wine as an object of perception assessment and appreciation They and their fellow contributors examine the relationship between a wine s qualities and our knowledge of them the links between the scientifically describable properties of wine and the conscious experience of the wine taster what we base our judgements of quality on and whether they are subjective or objective the distinction between the cognitive and sensory aspects of taste whether wine appreciation is an aesthetic experience the role language plays in describing and evaluating wines the significance of their intoxicating effect on us the meaning and value of drinking wine with others whether disagreement leads to relativism about judgements of taste and whether we can really share the pleasures of drinking Questions of Taste will be of interest to all those fascinated by the production and consumption of wine and how it affects our minds in ways we might not hitherto have suspected

The Philosophy of Wine Cain Todd, 2014-12-05 Does this Bonnes Mares really have notes of chocolate truffle violets and merde de cheval Can wines really be feminine profound pretentious or cheeky Can they express emotion or terroir Do the judgements of experts have any objective validity Is a great wine a work of art Questions like these will have been entertained by anyone who has ever puzzled over the tasting notes of a wine writer or been baffled by the response of a sommelier to an innocent question Only recently however have they received the serious philosophical attention they deserve Touching on issues in metaphysics epistemology the philosophy of mind and aesthetics this book provides a clear and engaging discussion of the philosophical significance of wine that will be accessible to all wine lovers specialists and non specialists alike The author offers throughout a sustained defence of the objectivity of wine judgements a demystification of the nature of expertise and a theory of the aesthetic value of wine and its appreciation

Finding Meaning in Wine Michael Sinowitz, 2023-08-01 This book examines controversies in American wine culture and how those controversies intersect with and illuminate current academic and cultural debates about the environment and about interpretation With a specific focus on the United States of America the methods that we use to discuss literature and other art are applied to wine making and wine culture The book explores the debates about how to evaluate wine and the problems inherent in numerical scoring as well as evaluative tasting notes whether winemakers can be artists the discourse in wine culture involving natural wine and biodynamic farming as well as how people judge what makes a wine great These interpretative commitments illuminate an underlying metaphysics and allegiance to a culture of reason or feeling The discussions engage with a broad range of writers and thinkers such as Roland Barthes Susan Sontag Louis Menand Michael Pollan Greg Garrard John Guillory Amitov Ghosh Pierre Bourdieu and Barbara Herrnstein Smith The book draws upon not only a number of texts produced by wine critics wine writers literary critics and theorists but also extensive interviews with wine writers and multiple California winemakers These interviews contribute to a unique reflection on wine and meaning This book will be of great interest to readers looking to learn more about wine from cultural literary and philosophical perspectives

I Drink Therefore I Am Roger Scruton, 2013-01-03 We are familiar with the medical opinion that a daily glass of wine is good for the health and also the rival opinion that any more than a glass or two will set us on the road to ruin Whether or not good for the body Scruton argues wine drunk in the right frame of mind is definitely good for the soul And there is no better accompaniment to wine than philosophy By thinking with wine you can learn not only to drink in thoughts but to think in draughts This good humoured book offers an antidote to the pretentious clap trap that is written about wine today and a profound apology for the drink on which civilisation has been founded In vino veritas

Epistemology Nicola Perullo, 2020-12-08 We think we know how to appreciate wine trained connoisseurs take dainty sips in sterile rooms and provide ratings based on objective knowledge and technical expertise In Epistemology Nicola Perullo vigorously challenges this approach arguing that it is the enjoyment of drinking wine as an active and participatory experience that matters Perullo argues that wine comes to life not in the abstract space of the professional tasting but in the real world of shared experiences wines can change in these encounters and drinkers along with them Just as a winemaker is not simply a producer but a nurturer a wine is fully known only through an encounter among a group of drinkers in a specific place and time Wine is not an object to analyze but an experience to make creatively opening up new perceptual possibilities for settings cuisines and companions The result of more than twenty years of research and practical engagement Epistemology presents a new paradigm for the enjoyment of wine and through it a philosophy based on participatory and relational knowledge This model suggests a profound shift not knowledge about but with wine Interweaving philosophical arguments with personal reflections and literary examples this book is a journey with wine that shows how it makes life more creative and free

The Routledge

Companion to Aesthetics Berys Gaut, Dominic Lopes, 2013-04-17 The third edition of the acclaimed Routledge Companion to Aesthetics contains over sixty chapters written by leading international scholars covering all aspects of aesthetics This companion opens with an historical overview of aesthetics including entries on Plato Aristotle Kant Nietzsche Heidegger Adorno Benjamin Foucault Goodman and Wollheim The second part covers the central concepts and theories of aesthetics including the definitions of art taste the value of art beauty imagination fiction narrative metaphor and pictorial representation Part three is devoted to issues and challenges in aesthetics including art and ethics art and religion creativity environmental aesthetics and feminist aesthetics The final part addresses the individual arts including music photography film videogames literature theater dance architecture and design With ten new entries and revisions and updated suggestions for further reading throughout The Routledge Companion to Aesthetics is essential for anyone interested in aesthetics art literature and visual studies

The Aesthetics of Food Kevin W. Sweeney, 2017-12-29 The Aesthetics of Food sets out the continuing philosophical debate about the aesthetic nature of food The debate begins with Plato's claim that only objects of sight and hearing could be beautiful consequently food as something we smell and taste could not be beautiful Plato's sceptical position has been both supported and opposed in one form or another throughout the ages This book demonstrates how the current debate has evolved and critically assesses that debate showing how it has been influenced by the changing nature of critical theory and changes in art historical paradigms Expressionism Modernism and Post modernism as well as by recent advances in neuroscience It also traces changes in our understanding of the sensory experience of food and drink from viewing taste as a simple single sense to current views on its complex multi sensory nature Particular attention is paid to recent philosophical discussion about wine whether an interest in a wine reflects only a subjective or personal preference or whether one can make objective judgments about the quality and merit of a wine Finally the book explores how the debate has been informed by changes in the cooking presenting and consuming of food for example by the appearance of the restaurant in the early nineteenth century as well as the rise of celebrity chefs

Perspectives on Taste Jeremy Wyatt, Julia Zakkou, Dan Zeman, 2022-04-27 This book offers a sustained interdisciplinary examination of taste It addresses a range of topics that have been at the heart of lively debates in philosophy of language linguistics metaphysics aesthetics and experimental philosophy Our everyday lives are suffused with discussions about taste We are quick to offer familiar platitudes about taste but we struggle when facing the questions that matter what taste is how it is related to subjectivity what distinguishes good from bad taste why it is valuable to make and evaluate judgments about matters of taste and what exactly we mean in speaking about these matters The essays in this volume open up new intersecting lines of research about these questions that cross traditional disciplinary boundaries They address the notion of aesthetic taste connections between taste and the natures of truth disagreement assertion belief retraction linguistic context sensitivity and the semantics pragmatics interface experimental inquiry about taste and metaphysical questions underlying ongoing
