Modern Architecture: A Very Short Introduction Adam Sharr, 2018-11-15 Somewhere between 1910 and 1970 architecture changed Now that modern architecture has become familiar sometimes celebrated sometimes vilified it s hard to imagine how novel it once seemed Expensive buildings were transformed from ornamental fancies which referred to the classical and medieval pasts into strikingly plain reflections of novel materials functions and technologies Modern architecture promised the transformation of cities from overcrowded conurbations characterised by packed slums and dirty industries to spacious realms of generous housing and clean mechanised production set in parkland At certain times and in certain cultures it stood for the liberation of the future from the past This Very Short Introduction explores the technical innovations that opened up the cultural and intellectual opportunities for modern architecture to happen Adam Sharr shows how the invention of steel and reinforced concrete radically altered possibilities for shaping buildings transforming what architects were able to imagine as did new systems for air conditioning and lighting While architects weren t responsible for these innovations they were among the first to appreciate how they could make the world look and feel different in connection with imagery from other spheres like modern art and industrial design Focusing on a selection of modern buildings that also symbolize bigger cultural ideas Sharr discusses what modern architecture was like why it was like that and how it was imagined Considering the work of some of the historians and critics who helped to shape modern architecture he demonstrates how the field owes as much to its storytellers as to its buildings

ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable

Rethinking Modernity Antigoni

Katsakou,2020-05-31 This book proposes alternative interpretations of broadly debated concepts within architectural modernity Bringing into view the work of lesser known architects from across the globe alongside previously unexplored aspects of mainstream masters of the Modern Rethinking Modernity puts forward a compelling case for the range and diversity of architectural projects encompassed by this term Exploring themes such as the use of colour materials ornament local traditions and identities Rethinking Modernity challenges readers to build a better understanding of a crucial moment in architectural history and of design trends shaping the present day production of the built environment Complementing the RIBA Publishing titles Redefining Brutalism and Revisiting Postmodernism this book sits within a series of books aiming to explore new interpretations of well loved architectural movements richly illustrated with rarely seen archive photography and lesser known projects Modern Architecture Adam Sharr,2018 Adam Sharr tells the story of how modern architecture developed and produced its powerful cultural images Considering the new building materials and techniques which shaped the movement such as innovations in steel and concrete and the advent of air conditioning he concludes by asking whether contemporary architecture remains modern at heart Hans Scharoun and China Liyang Ding,2024-11-15 This book presents the first systematic overview and analysis of the deep connection between Scharoun and China offering insights into East West cultural exchange and enriching existing understandings of modernism The German architect Hans Scharoun has typically been pigeonholed as a leading figure in expressionist architecture As this book shows however this understanding oversimplifies the multifaceted nature of Scharoun s career and overlooks his central role within the tradition of Neues Bauen The book begins with Scharoun s early interactions with East Asian architects in the 1930s his active involvement in the Chinese Werkbund 1941 42 and his extensive research on Chinese architecture and urban culture in the mid 1940s and 1950s The book then examines Scharoun s postwar architectural designs and urban planning projects most notably the Kollektivplan the Volksschule Darmstadt and the Berliner Philharmonie which incorporated original spatial and urbanistic concepts such as Stadtlandschaft Raum der Mitte and aperspectival space inspired to varying degrees by Chinese architectural and urban planning traditions The book will appeal to scholars and students of modern architecture urban planning and architectural theory especially those interested in modernism and East West cultural exchange Play Among Books Miro Roman,Alice _ch3n81,2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice _ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science Contemporary Art About Architecture Nora Wendl,2017-07-05 An important resource for scholars of contemporary art and architecture this volume considers contemporary art that takes architecture as its subject Concentrated on works made since 1990 Contemporary Art About Architecture A Strange Utility is the first to take up this topic in a sustained and explicit manner and the first to advance the idea that contemporary art functions as a form of architectural history theory and analysis Over the course of fourteen essays by both emerging and established scholars this volume examines a diverse group of artists in conjunction with the vernacular canonical and fantastical structures engaged by their work I Manglano Ovalle Matthew Barney Monika Sosnowska Pipa Nguyen duy and Paul Pfeiffer are among those considered as are the compelling questions of architecture s relationship to photography the evolving legacy of Mies van der Rohe the notion of an architectural unconscious and the provocative concepts of the unbuilt and the unbuildable Through a rigorous investigation of these issues Contemporary Art About Architecture calls attention to the fact that art is now a vital form of architectural discourse Indeed this phenomenon is both pervasive and in its individual incarnations compelling a reason to think again about the entangled histories of architecture and art

Glass! Love!! Perpetual Motion!!! Paul Scheerbar, 2014-10-19 German writer critic and theorist Paul Scheerbar 1863 1915 died nearly a century ago but his influence is still being felt today Considered by some a mad eccentric and by others a visionary political thinker in his own time he is now experiencing a revival thanks to a new generation of scholars who are rightfully situating him in the modernist pantheon Glass Love Perpetual Motion is the first collection of Scheerbar s multifarious writings to be published in English In addition to a selection of his fantastical short stories it includes the influential architectural manifesto Glass Architecture and his literary tour de force Perpetual Motion The Story of an Invention The latter written in the guise of a scientific work complete with technical diagrams was taken as such when first published but in reality is a fiction albeit one with an important message Glass Love Perpetual Motion is richly illustrated with period material much of it never before reproduced including a selection of artwork by Paul Scheerbar himself Accompanying this original material is a selection of essays by scholars novelists and filmmakers commissioned for this publication to illuminate Scheerbar s importance then and now in the worlds of art architecture and culture Coedited by artist Josiah McElheny and Christine Burgin with new artwork created for this publication by McElheny Glass Love Perpetual Motion is a long overdue monument to a modern master

Meaning in Architecture, now Carlo Deregibus, Aurosa Alison, 2024-10-15 The connection between form and meaning has been so intrinsic and obvious that it has been implicit for centuries Then around fifty years ago the issue of meaning suddenly burst into the architectural world with many scholars and practitioners bustling to introduce semiology and semiotics into design Now after the globalisation and the atomisation of thoughts of the last decades those debates could seem pretty meaningless the form being mainly an aesthetic feature or a counterfeit fetish for everchanging feeble poetics Yet we continue to design produce and critique architecture attributing meanings intentions and hopes to its forms Once more we will explore and discuss the elusive yet unavoidable connection between meaning and architecture four thematic sections to understand the place and dimension of meaning in of from to after or maybe even for Architecture
