Religious Beliefs and Knowledge Systems in Africa

Toyin Falola, Nicole Griffin, 2021-09-21 Key to African studies is understanding the knowledge systems of the continent and her diaspora The representation and understanding of Africa are dependent on the observer's definition of knowledge Afrocentric knowledge is comprised of a collection of political religious and indigenous belief systems Religious Beliefs and Knowledge Systems in Africa begins with deconstructing the Western philosophy of knowledge before defining and exploring the epistemic disciplines of Africa It transcends postcolonial critique through an Afrocentric approach to knowledge divided into three key themes The first of these is the African worldview exploring knowledge through eldership witchcraft and divination This is followed up by kingship ideology and epistemologies exploring discussing how politics religion and belief shape African society Finally the world religion chapter examines Christianity Islam and Pentecostalism in their impact on African ways of knowing This book calls to action new fields of study in universities encouraging a greater understanding of African ways of knowing through more nuanced disciplines Custom, Law, and Monarchy Marie Seong-Hak

Kim, 2021-10-07 Ancien régime France did not have a unified law Legal relations of the people were governed by a disorganized amalgam of norms including provincial and local customs coutumes elements of Roman law and canon law royal edicts and ordinances and judicial decisions All these sources of law coexisted with little apparent internal coherence The multiplicity of laws and the fragmentation of jurisdiction were defining features of the monarchical era Legal historians have focused on popular custom and its metamorphosis into customary law which covered a broad spectrum of what we call today private law This book sets forth the evolution of law in late medieval and early modern France from the thirteenth through the end of the eighteenth century with particular emphasis on the royal campaigns to record and reform customs in the sixteenth century The codification of customs in the name of the king solidified the legislative authority of the crown which was an essential element of the absolute monarchy The achievements of legal humanism brought custom and Roman law together to lay the foundation for a unified French law The Civil Code of 1804 was the culmination of these centuries of work Juristic political and constitutional approaches to the early modern state allow an understanding of French history in a continuum Dynasties Jeroen Duindam, 2016 A vibrant and broad ranging study of dynastic power in the late medieval and early modern world
