Agola, Alan Hunter, 2016-08-30 Employing a three dimensional approach this book discusses inclusive innovation for socio economic growth and development and the implications for human security within the context of developing and emerging economies Focusing on a new and innovative area of research Inclusive Innovation for Sustainable Development explores new social and technological processes that are created within and for the benefit of marginalised populations Considering policy and issues surrounding technology business strategies and best practices theoretical underpinnings and a broader contextualisation the authors interrogate the concept of the inclusivity of innovations Written from the perspective of the new UN paradigm which states that no one will be left behind the book considers the potential contribution of modern technology to human security and develops frameworks that counter the potential increases in inequality that this may bring With contributions from leading international scholars in a range of disciplines as well as practitioners in international development organizations and private sector actors Inclusive Innovation for Sustainable Development provides a way forward for excluded majority populations to take control of innovative technologies and business processes Cellular Daniel D. Garcia-Swartz, Martin Campbell-Kelly, 2022-10-18 Tracks the evolution of the international cellular industry from the late 1970s to the present The development of the mobile phone industry into what we know today required remarkable cooperation between companies

C est l homme qui fait l homme B. Nyamnjoh,2015-08-12 The idea that human beings are inextricably bound to one another is at the heart of this book about African agency especially drawing on the African philosophy Ubuntu with its roots in human sociality and inclusivity Ubuntu's precepts and workings are severely tested in these times of rapid change and multiple responsibilities Africans negotiate their social existence between urban and rural life their continental and transcontinental distances and all the market forces that now impinge with relationships and loyalties placed in question Between ideal and reality dreams and schemes how is Ubuntu actualized misappropriated and endangered The book unearths the intrigues and contradictions that go with inclusivity in Africa Basing his argument on the ideals of trust conviviality and support embodied in the concept of Ubuntu Francis Nyamnjoh demonstrates how the pursuit of personal success and even self aggrandizement challenges these ideals thus leading to discord in social relationships Nyamnjoh uses a popular Ivorian drama with the same title to substantiate life world realities and more importantly to demonstrate that new forms of expression from popular drama to fiction thicken and enrich the ethnographic component in current anthropology
