Global Percussion Innovations Louise Devenish, 2018-09-03 First emerging in North America and Europe in the late 1920s contemporary percussion practices have transitioned from the fringes of contemporary music to the forefront over the past 90 years In the 1960s contemporary percussion practices reached Australian shores and a new generation of artists added their voices to this narrative The role of Australian activity is not yet embedded in the wider narrative of international contemporary percussion nor is the significance of developments in contemporary percussion practices fully realised in the context of Australian music history In this monograph political social and cultural influences on this art form will be examined for the first time in a historical survey of contemporary percussion music in Australia over a 50 year period from 1960 to 2010 The rise of the percussion ensemble in the twentieth century to a standard chamber music ensemble is now recognised as one of the major advances in western art music practice internationally A focus will be placed on ensemble activity via definitive documentation and analysis of ensembles that are amongst the most pioneering and longest established of Australian contemporary music organisations including the Australian Percussion Ensemble Synergy Percussion Adelaide Percussions Nova Ensemble Tetrafile Percussion Taikoz Clocked Out and Speak Percussion amongst others Closing with a discussion of influences and identity this historical narrative will expand our understanding of the impact of Australian contributions to the international contemporary music scene while simultaneously examining how developments in contemporary percussion have contributed to Australia's cultural identity

Building Better Schools with Evidence-based Policy Kelly-Ann Allen, Andrea Reupert, Lindsay Oades, 2021-04-29 Building Better Schools with Evidence based Policy Adaptable Policy for Teachers and School Leaders provides an extensive set of free to use policies for building better schools The policies included in this book cover a broad range of popular topics for schools that are not readily accessible and each policy is built on theory driven by research and created by experts Each policy is based on substantial evidence and this is ensured through the inclusion of contributors who are active and highly reputable in their respective field Most schools are obliged to write and maintain policy and not all school leaders have the required skills time or expertise to do this effectively Building Better Schools with Evidence based Policy Adaptable Policy for Teachers and School Leaders is a time saving resource for schools It aims to address the reported research to practice gap in education by delivering accessible evidence based practice in a ready to use adaptable format All policies within this book are designed to be adapted and tailored to the unique diversity and needs of each school as reflected by the context and the people that make up the school community This book is relevant to every person who works in a school worldwide Users of this book can rest assured that each policy has been carefully formulated from the current understandings of best practice This is a practical innovation and an example of how schools can use research evidence in their day to day practices The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Colonial Transformation and Asian Religions in Modern History David W. Kim, 2018-10-12 The localisation of a region group or culture was a common social phenomenon in pre modern Asia but global colonialism began to affect the lifestyle of local people What was the political condition of the relationship between insiders and outsiders The impact of colonial authorities over religious communities has not received significant attention even though the Asian continent is the home of many religions including Hinduism Buddhism Confucianism Taoism Islam Shintoism and Shamanism Colonial Transformation and Asian Religions in Modern History presents multi angled perspectives of socio religious transition It uses the cultural religiosity of the Asian people as a lens through which readers can re examine the concepts of imperialism religious syncretism and modernisation The contributors interpret the growth of new religions as another facet of counter colonialism This new approach offers significant insight into comprehending the practical agony and sorrow of regional people throughout Asian history

Corporal Punishment of Children Bernadette J. Saunders, Pernilla Leviner, Bronwyn Naylor, 2018-11-26 Corporal Punishment of Children Comparative Legal and Social Developments towards Prohibition and Beyond provides insights into the views and experiences of prominent academics and political religious and human rights activists from Australia Canada Germany Ireland Israel New Zealand Norway South Africa Sweden the UK and the US Country specific and thematic insights in relation to children s ongoing experience of corporal punishment are detailed and discussed and key questions are raised and considered with a view to advancing progress towards societies in which children s human rights to dignity and optimal development are more fully recognised

Lacanian Psychoanalysis with Babies, Children, and Adolescents Stephanie Farrelly Quinn, Carol Owens, 2018-03-29 Lacan did not say or write very much about the psychoanalysis of children There is no doctrine of the psychoanalysis of children in his work Instead his 1956 1957 seminar on the object relation and his Note on the Child of 1969 have been adopted by Lacanian analysts working with children as providing essential coordinates for direction in their clinical work This book is the result of inviting psychoanalysts of the Lacanian orientation working with children around the globe to theorise and conceptualise that work The Lacanian psychoanalyst works with the notion of the subject as a speaking being but the child subject brings particular exigencies to the psychoanalytic work Contributors attend to these exigencies in their essays by articulating the precise particularities of the direction of the treatment and psychoanalytic work with children

Strangers Next Door? Tim Lindsey, Dave McRae, 2018-02-22 There are no two neighbouring countries anywhere in the world that are more different than Indonesia and Australia They differ hugely in religion language culture history geography race economics worldview and population Indonesia 270 million Australia less than 10 per cent of that In fact Indonesia and Australia have almost nothing in common other than the accident of geographic proximity This makes their relationship turbulent volatile and often unpredictable Strangers Next Door brings together insiders and leading observers to critically assess the state of Australia Indonesia relations and their future prospects offering insights into why the relationship is so important for Australia why it is so often in crisis and what this means for the future This book will be of interest to anyone concerned with the Indo Pacific region Southeast Asia Australia and Indonesia and each country's politics economy and foreign policy It contains chapters that will interest specialists but are written in a style accessible to a general audience The book spans a diverse range of subjects including political relations and diplomacy security and defence the economy and trade Islam education development the arts legal cooperation the media women and community ties Contributors assess the current state of relations in their sphere of expertise and outline the factors and policies that could shape bilateral ties and Indonesia's future over the coming decades University of Melbourne scholars Tim Lindsey and Dave McRae both prominent observers and commentators on Indonesia and its relations with Australia edited the volume providing a synthesising overview as well as their own thematic chapters

The Emerald Handbook of Crime, Justice and Sustainable Development Jarrett Blaustein, Kate Fitz-Gibbon, Nathan W. Pino, Rob White, 2020-11-18 This volume brings together a diverse collection of essays that critically examine issues relating to crime and justice in the United Nations 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development Chapters examine the issues that practitioners face in working to advance this agenda and the possibilities that exist to advance sustainable development outcomes

Postgraduate Research Engagement in Low Resource Settings Atibuni, Dennis Zami, 2019-09-27 The general academic progression and particularly research engagement of postgraduate students is characterized by various problems such as high dropout rates longer completion times low graduation rates and high repetition or retake rates This means that there are far fewer students pursuing postgraduate studies at tertiary institutions and universities than there are at the lower levels of education Yet there is growing demand for postgraduate education given its strong projected association with socioeconomic transformation at national and international levels among developed and developing countries alike Postgraduate Research Engagement in Low Resource Settings sets out to garner strategies for fostering efficiency of research conduct among the students and faculty so as to enhance high quality output for the envisaged personal societal national and international socioeconomic transformation Covering a range of topics such as intellectual property mental health and quality assurance this book is ideal for research supervisors higher education faculty librarians educators administrators researchers academicians and students

The Investment Treaty Regime and Public Interest Regulation in Africa Dominic Npoanlari Dagbanja, 2022-07-14

A large amount of foreign direct investment FDI has been poured into Africa in recent decades and these investments can come with adverse effects on the environment human rights and development At the same time investment treaties entered into by African states and aimed at promoting and protecting FDI seriously limit those states ability to regulate such activities in the interests of affected communities Whilst these tensions have generated global debate little attention has been paid to the legal status of many of these investment treaties and whether given their constitutional and customary international law obligations to act in the public interest African states truly have the capacity to conclude treaties which contain standards of investment protection expressly preventing or unduly abridging the exercise of their regulatory authority Focusing on this question The Investment Treaty Regime and Public Interest Regulation in Africa presents The Imperatives Theory a legal normative and principled framework for rethinking the legal status making and reform of investment treaties and investment dispute settlement in Africa with relevant and significant implications for the global investment treaty regime
