People Of The Way Renewing Episcopal Identity:

People of the Way Dwight J. Zscheile, 2012-05-01 By exploring the Episcopal Church's mission and precepts in the context of 21st century and its challenges this thoughtful book deepens the Church's relationship with its people and makes the faith more relevant. Society and culture are constantly evolving so must religion and its mission to remain meaningful. The legacies of establishment benefactor approaches to mission and the national church ideal are no longer adequate for the challenges and opportunities facing the 21st century church. But if the Episcopal Church is no longer the Church of the Establishment and the benefactor model of church is dead what is the heart of Episcopal mission and identity? Scholar and Episcopal priest Dwight Zscheile draws on multiple streams of Anglican thought and practice plus contemporary experience to craft a vision for mission that addresses the church's post establishment post colonial context. With stories practices and concrete illustrations Zscheile engages readers in re envisioning what it means to be Anglican in America today and sends readers out to build new relationships within their local contexts.

What We Shall Become Winnie Varghese, 2013-10-01 Edited by well known Episcopal leaders. Designed to facilitate the church's dialogue on structure. Presents viewpoints representative of the diversity of the church. Structure throughout the denomination and within local parishes is the hot topic conversation of the day. How do we order ourselves for mission? What structure is helpful and what hinders our work? Who holds power and how do they wield it? From the triennial budget based on the Five Marks of Mission to the decision to relocate the Episcopal Church Center away from its current headquarters in New York City how the denomination will be structured for the 21st century remains the critically defining question. This edited volume will provide thoughtful resources from a wide range of perspectives as well as foundational materials on theology history and ecclesiology to facilitate the dialogue.

Prophetic Preaching Ian S. Markham, Crystal J. Hardin, 2020-03-17 A collection of provocative inspiring and thoughtful essays about the place of politics in the pulpit. This book is the first collection of essays to explore the question is there room for politics from the pulpit. In response to an increasingly polarized society preachers grapple with the call to witness a unifying Truth in a world where truth appears subjective While many congregations respond positively to social and political themes in sermons others do not Episcopalians in the conservative minority may be uncomfortable with political themed preaching while liberal Episcopalians demand a political message from the pulpit What is a preacher to do when the Episcopal Church is no more immune to the temptation of polarization than the secular world Contributors to this volume serve in a variety of contexts and bring with them their own distinct styles and visions Anyone with an interest in the practical implications addressing the current political climate from the pulpit will find these essays provocative inspiring and thoughtful Contributors Samuel G Chandler Sarah T Condon Alex Dyer Crystal J Hardin Ruthanna Hooke Mark Jefferson Russell J Levenson Jr Ian Markham Phoebe Roaf Stephanie Spellers Samuel Wells

Privilege and Prophecy Robert Tobin, Robert Benjamin Tobin, 2022 The Episcopal Church has long been regarded as the religion of choice among America's ruling elite Yet after World War II a new generation of leaders emerged eager to shake off the church's reputation as a bastion of privilege and transform it into an agent of social reform Taking an active part in the civil rights and anti war movements of the 1960s these leaders struggled to draw the church's membership into their vision of change Despite their shortcomings these activist leaders played a pivotal role in the evolution of Episcopalianism from establishment church into a more diverse and inclusive denomination

rite that no longer has a place in the life of the church understanding the importance that Baptism now holds in the 1979 Book of Common Prayer's ecclesiology Following a history of how the rite of Confirmation came about and its implications for youth and adults in the church today voices in the Episcopal Church bishops liturgical scholars confirmation leaders and youth themselves offer fresh viewpoints here in a conversational format to engage the reader
