the text Peoples of the New Testament World William A. Simmons,2008 Who were the Scribes The Pharisees The Herodians Dr William A Simmons invites readers to examine the diverse cultural religious political and economic groups that existed in the time of the New Testament Color photographs maps charts timelines and drawings illustrate this accessible exploration Book jacket Jesus and Myth Peter John Barber,2021-02-15 Is Jesus mythological And is he a mere product of his cultural milieu Through narratological and social scientific analysis of the gospel account Barber systematically demonstrates that there are two opposing patterns structuring the gospel The first is the pattern of this world which is the combat myth with a typical sequence of motifs having mythological meanings It is lived out by everyone else in the accounts except Jesus because this pattern of the world is the pattern of myth culture which is the pattern of the old Adam and sin nature The pattern of Jesus is the pattern intended for Adam to walk in and is the unique pattern of the new Adam Jesus Christ Jesus s pattern inverts the sequence and subverts the significance of each and every motif and episode of the myth culture s pattern Barber shows that Jesus s failure to conform to this world s mythological pattern establishes that he is not mythological and not a product of his culture As the apostle Peter states we did not follow cleverly devised tales myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty 2 Pet 1 16

Know Thyself Thomas O. Buford,2011-11-25 Know Thyself An Essay in Social Personalism proposes that social Personalism can best provide for self knowledge In the West self knowledge has been sought within the framework of two dominant intellectual traditions order and the emerging self On the one hand ancient and medieval philosophers living in an orderly hierarchical society governed by honor and shame and bolstered by the metaphysics of being and rationalism believed persons gain self knowledge through uniting with the ground of their being once united they would understand what they are what they are to be and what they are to do On the other hand Renaissance and modern thinkers such as Pico della Mirandola Copernicus Descartes Locke and Kant shattered the great achievement of the high middle ages and bequeathed to posterity an emerging self in a splintered world Continuing their search for self knowledge the moderns found themselves faced with the dualism of the emerging self of the Renaissance and the natural world as understood by modern scientists New problems spun out of this dualism including the mind body problem the other minds problem free will and determinism the nature and possibility of social relationships values moral norms and their relationship to the natural and social worlds and the relationships between science and religion Finding self knowledge among these splinters without a guiding orientation has proven difficult Even though luminaries such as Spinoza Berkeley and Hegel attempted to bring order to the sundered elements their attempts proved unsatisfactory We contend that neither order nor the emerging self can adequately provide for self knowledge Since those culturally embodied master narratives lead us to an impasse we turn to social Personalism Self knowledge developed in this book shows how persons in relation to the Personal learn who they are what they are to become and what they must do to achieve that goal It also shows that the achievement of self knowledge is supported by a natural social and cultural environment rooted in trust In this humane and timely discussion Thomas O Buford offers a personalist understanding of self knowledge that avoids the impersonalisms that erode the dignity of persons and their moral life which characterize modern life Old and New London: a Narrative of Its History, Its People, and Its Places ... Walter Thornbury,1893 Friendship in the Book of Job Mark S. Aidoo,2024-11-07 Friendship is an important aspect of human society and a virtue that lies at the heart of sub Saharan African societies This study explores the art of friendship in the book of Job and how it resonates in the sub Saharan African setting As a wisdom tradition the story offers a critique of friendship and of appropriate action with reference to particular circumstances institutions and persons showing how the speeches actions and inactions of the characters inform friendship identities Readers are exposed to proverbs parables and sayings from African communities which show the richness of African culture and ethos The similarities and differences between Western and African traditional worldviews and views of friendship come out clearly in the communal values of relatedness loyalty collaboration empowerment and goodwill The Preacher's Complete Homiletical Commentary on the Old Testament: Leviticus ,1892
