The Experiment of Faith Ramage, 2020-04-17 Pope Benedict XVI memorably remarked that the Christian faith is a lot like a Gothic cathedral with its stained glass windows From the outside the Church can appear dark dreary and worn with age the crumbling relic of an institution that no longer speaks to men and women living in our modern world Indeed for many people today Christian morality with all of its commandments appears to be a source not of life and joy but instead of suffering and oppression Even within the Church many wonder why should I submit to ancient doctrines and outdated practices that restrict my freedom and impede my happiness In this timely and original book his third exploring the riches of Benedict XVI's vast corpus theologian Matthew Ramage sets out to meet this challenge with an in depth study of the emeritus pontiff's wisdom on how to live Christian discipleship in today's increasingly secularized world Taking as his starting point Benedict's conviction that the truth of Christianity like the beauty of a cathedral's glorious windows can be grasped only from the inside Ramage draws on Benedict's insights to show how all Christians can make the experiment of faith by living the theological virtues of faith hope and charity in daily life Along the way he shares his personal reflections on how Benedict's wisdom has helped him to navigate difficulties in embracing the faith and provides a way forward to those struggling to live as disciples in a way that is intellectually serious without remaining merely intellectual In so doing he also presents a highly nuanced yet accessible approach to defending the truth of the gospel in a world where life in Jesus Christ

tends to be seen as unfulfilling irrelevant or just one lifestyle choice among others The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Nature Laura Hobgood, Whitney A. Bauman, 2018-05-17 Divided into four parts Earth Air Fire and Water this book takes an elemental approach to the study of religion and ecology It reflects recent theoretical and methodological developments in this field which seek to understand the ways that ideas and matter minds and bodies exist together within an immanent frame of reference The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Nature focuses on how these matters materialize in the world around us thereby addressing key topics in this area of study The editors provide an extensive introduction to the book as well as useful introductions to each of its parts The volume s international contributors are drawn from the USA South Africa Netherlands Norway Indonesia and South Korea and offer a variety of perspectives voices cultural settings and geographical locales This handbook shows that human concern and engagement with material existence is present in all sectors of the global community regardless of religious tradition It challenges the traditional methodological approach of comparative religion and argues that globalization renders a comparative religious approach to the environment insufficient Living Prayer Alison Mearns Benders, Lisa Fullam, Gina Hens-Piazza, 2024-07-15 Morning and evening prayer for those seeking to respond to Pope Francis s call for greater care for our common home God saw everything that was made and indeed it was very good Yet human disregard for creation endangers that goodness In Living Prayer A Book of Hours for Cultivating Life authors Alison M Benders Lisa Fullam and Gina Hens Piazza invite readers to embrace our role as servant cultivators in the ecology of God celebrating and sustaining all that is Following the pattern of the daily prayer of the church Living Prayer offers a four week cycle of morning and evening prayer to support a more sustainable lifestyle and embodies an ethic of care for our common home Created with ecological and social justice oriented individuals and organizations in mind Living Prayer supports hands on work in local communities empowered by reflection and prayer The book also includes a variety of green rituals to extend ecological prayer through practices that enlist elements of the reader s environment to connect to God s presence in the created world It is an invitation to live the prayer of our hearts so that the ecology of God flourishes to cultivate the new creation Bread for the Soul Clarke, Jim, Jim Clarke draws on his forty two years of experience in pastoral ministry to explore common questions and struggles faced by most of us in daily life relationships meaning work faith issues prayer money aging understanding God s ways bringing faith to life and life to faith etc Each chapter begins with a question culled from his studies and professional training as well as from parishioners and students As always Fr Jim brings the abstract down to earth as he writes in a conversational easily readable format using stories analogies and jokes to help the reader to engage with the topics
