Section 2 Guided War In Europe:

Europe and America John Peterson, 2002-09-11 The conflict in Bosnia disputes within the new World Trade Organization and debates about NATO enlargement all illustrate a single point no relationship is more important in determining the state of international relations than the alliance between Europe and America Contrary to accepted wisdom John Peterson argues that the end of the Cold War actually enhances the prospects for partnership between the United States and the European Union Completely updated this book offers a clear and penetrating analysis of the problems and opportunities facing the transatlantic alliance The Second World War: Europe and the Mediterranean Thomas E. Griess, 2014-03-28 OVER 210 000 WEST POINT MILITARY HISTORY SERIES SETS IN PRINT From the prewar development of the German war machine to the ultimate victory of the Allied coalition here is an in depth analysis of the battles that raged on the Western and Eastern Fronts It examines the major strategies the innovative tactics and the new generation of weapons along with the people who used them The European Union, Civil Society and Conflict Nathalie Tocci, 2011-03-29 Until recently the European Union tended to view violent mass conflicts predominantly through the lens of negotiations between conflict leaders and powerful external actors Today the EU has begun to recognize the imperative of understanding and influencing developments on the ground in conflict situations by engaging with local civil society The European Union Civil Society and Conflict explores the EU's relations with civil society organizations at the local level in an effort to improve the effectiveness and relevance of its conflict and peace strategies Looking in particular at the eastern and southern neighbourhoods the volume analyses five case studies of EU and local civil society interaction in Georgia Abkhazia Nagorno Karabakh Moldova Transnistria Israel Palestine and Morocco Western Sahara Through the comparative examination of these cases this volume draws broad policy guidelines tailored to governmental and non governmental action Exploring the impact of the European Union in conflicts beyond its borders through its engagement with civil society this book will be of interest to students and scholars of the EU civil society and conflict Law of the European Convention on Human Rights David John Harris, Michael O'Boyle, Ed Bates, Carla Buckley, 2023 This seminal text offers a comprehensive account of the case law of the ECHR and its underlying principles It provides a guide to decisions under the Convention and its protocols article by article as well as explaining the history and likely development of the law Authoritarian Liberalism and the Transformation of Modern Europe Michael A. Wilkinson, 2021 Oxford Constitutional Theory has rapidly established itself as the primary point of reference for theoretical reflections on the growing interest in constitutions and constitutional law in domestic regional and global contexts The majority of the works published in the series are monographs that advance new understandings of their subject But the series aims to provide a forum for further innovation in the field by also including well conceived edited collections that bring a variety of perspectives and disciplinary approaches to bear on specific themes in constitutional thought and by publishing English translations of leading monographs in constitutional theory that have originally been written in languages other than English Book jacket
