Seeing Power Art And Activism In The Twenty First Century:

Seeing Power Nato Thompson, 2015-08-18 In our chaotic world of co-opted imagery does art still have power A fog of images and information permeates the world nowadays from advertising television radio and film to the glut produced by the new economy and the rise of social media where even our friends suddenly seem to be selling us the ultimate product themselves Here Nato Thompson one of the country's most celebrated young curators and critics investigates what this deluge means for those dedicated to socially engaged art and activism How can anyone find a voice and make change in a world flooded with such pseudo art How are we supposed to discern what's true in the product emanating from the ceaseless machine of consumer capitalism a machine that appropriates from art history and now from the methods of grassroots political organizing and even social networking Thompson's invigorating answers to those questions highlights the work of some of the most innovative and interesting artists and activists working today as well as institutions that empower their communities to see power and reimagine it From cooperative housing to anarchist infoshops to alternative art venues Seeing Power reveals ways that art today can and does inspire innovation and dramatic transformation perhaps as never before

The Routledge Companion to Art and Activism in the Twenty-First Century Lesley Shipley, Mey-Yen Moriuchi, 2022-12-30 The Routledge Companion to Art and Activism in the Twenty First Century brings together a wide range of geographical cultural historical and conceptual perspectives in a single volume of new essays that facilitate a deeper understanding of the field of art activism as it stands today and as it looks towards the future The book is a resource for multiple fields including art activism socially engaged art and contemporary art that represent the depth and breadth of contemporary activist art worldwide Contributors highlight predominant lines of inquiry uncover challenges faced by scholars and practitioners of activist art and facilitate dialogue that might lead to new directions for research and practice The editors hope that the volume will incite further conversation and collaboration among the various participants practitioners and researchers concerned with the relationship between art and activism The audience includes scholars and professors of modern and contemporary art students in both graduate and upper level undergraduate programs as well as artists curators and museum professionals Each chapter can stand on its own making the companion a flexible resource for students and educators working in art history museum studies community practice socially engaged art political science sociology and ethnic and cultural studies Chapter 17 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> The Aesthetics of Necropolitics , Natasha Lushetich, 2018-12-11 Every politics is an aesthetic If necropolitics is the accelerated politics of what is usually referred to as the apolitical age what are its manoeuvres temporalities intensities textures and tipping points Bypassing revelatory and reconstructionist approaches the tendency of which is to show that a particular site or practice is necropolitical by bringing its genealogy into evidence this collection of essays by artist philosophers and theorist curators articulates the pre perceptual working of necropolitics through a focus on the senses assignments of energy attitudes cognitive processes and discursive frameworks Drawing on different yet complementary methodologies visual performance affect and network analysis historiography and ethnography the contributors analyse cultural fetishes taboos sensorial and relational processes anchored in everyday practices or cued by specific artworks By mapping the necropolitics affective cartography they expand the concept beyond its teleological anthropocentric and reductive horizon of making and letting die to include posthuman and posthumous actants effectively arguing for the necropolitics transformatory political potential

Pedagogical Art in Activist and Curatorial Practices Izabel Galliera,Noni Brynjolson,2025-06-24 This edited volume highlights the historical philosophical and theoretical legacies of pedagogical art and examines its connections with various forms of activism and institutional transformation Chapters reveal interconnected concerns related to institutional power structures systemic racism sexism and gender biases in art institutions exclusionary tactics of neoliberal corporate interests and the politicization of culture in authoritarian regimes This volume brings together leading and emerging scholars curators and artists who have written case studies from various geographical cultural and political contexts Through a range of different approaches and diverse perspectives contributors address key debates and conversations on this topic including the lessons that can be learned from exploring global histories of critical pedagogy the possibilities and constraints of institutional critique and transformation within museums universities and other educational institutions and the many ways in which contemporary pedagogical art has intersected with art and activism around the world Through these debates contributors investigate the potential of pedagogical art as a transformative institutional tool with the potential to activate discursive spaces for generating sharing and amplifying knowledge as a powerful form of collective resistance This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history art education and museum studies among other fields On the Edge Margaret Hillenbrand,2023-10-24 Winner 2024 Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for East Asian Studies Modern Language Association Charismatic artists recruit desperate migrants for site specific performance art pieces often without compensation Construction workers threaten on camera to jump from the top of a high rise building if their back wages are not paid Users of a video and livestreaming app hustle for views by eating excrement or setting off firecrackers on their genitals In these and many other recent cultural moments China s suppressed social strife simmers or threatens to boil over On the Edge probes precarity in contemporary China through the lens of the dark and angry cultural forms that chronic uncertainty has generated Margaret Hillenbrand argues that a vast underclass of Chinese workers exist in zombie citizenship a state of dehumanizing exile from the law and its safeguards Many others also feel precarious sensing that they live on a precipice with the constant fear of falling into this abyss of dispossession disenfranchisement and dislocation Examining the volatile aesthetic forms that embody stifled social tensions and surging anxiety over zombie citizenship Hillenbrand traces how people use culture to vent taboo feelings of rage resentment distrust and disdain in scenarios rife with cross class antagonism On the Edge is highly interdisciplinary fusing digital media art history literary criticism and performance studies with citizenship protest and labor studies It makes both the distinctive Chinese experience and the vital role of culture central to global understandings of how entrenched insecurity and civic jeopardy fray the bonds of the social contract

The ^AArt of Emergency Chérie Rivers Ndaliko, Samuel Anderson, 2020-01-03 The Art of Emergency charts the maneuvers of art through conflict zones across the African continent Through ten cases it advances diverse models for artistic and humanitarian alliances and urges deliberation on the role of aesthetics in crisis through intellectual engagement artistic innovation and administrative policy

Doing Public Humanities Susan Smulyan, 2020-07-20 Doing Public Humanities explores the cultural landscape from disruptive events to websites from tours to exhibits from after school arts programs to archives giving readers a wide ranging look at the interdisciplinary practice of public humanities Combining a practitioner s focus on case studies with the scholar s more abstract and theoretical approach this collection of essays is useful for both teaching and appreciating public humanities The contributors are committed to presenting a public humanities practice that encourages social justice and explores the intersectionalities of race class gender and sexualities Centering on the experiences of students with many of the case studies focused on course projects the content will enable them to relate to and better understand this new field of study The text is essential reading for undergraduate and graduate classes in public history historic preservation history of art engaged sociology and public archaeology and anthropology as well as public humanities

Art, Critical Pedagogy and Capitalism Paul Alexander Stewart, 2020-12-30 This book offers a re examination of art production in terms that understand the process of learning as the production of art itself Drawing on the thought of Ranciere Freire Gramsci and Mouffe it provides an account of the politics of art production and a theoretical understanding of hegemonic power while developing a view of method in critical pedagogy founded on the process of making adversaries Through a re evaluation of the relationships between process arts production and pedagogy within accelerated developments of neoliberalism the author uncovers ways of forming a more co operative and less conflictual approach to democratic politics An investigation of ways in which art practice can be used to engage with critical pedagogy in relation to a commodity driven neoliberal agenda Art Critical Pedagogy and Capitalism constitutes a radical rethinking of art making and an attempt to address the paradox between the proliferation of the commodity of learning and the perceived crisis of arts education As such it will appeal to scholars of education pedagogy and the arts with interests in social and critical theory

Socially Engaged Art after Socialism Izabel Galliera, 2017-05-30 Reclaiming public life from the ideologies of both communist regimes and neoliberalism their projects have harnessed the politically subversive potential of social relations based on trust reciprocity and solidarity Drawing on archival material and exclusive interviews in this book Izabel Galliera traces the development of socially engaged art from the early 1990s to the present in Bulgaria Hungary and Romania She demonstrates that in the early 1990s projects were primarily created for exhibitions organized and funded by the Soros

Centers for Contemporary Art In the early 2000s prior to Bulgaria Hungary and Romania entering into the European Union EU institutions likewise funded socially conscious public art in the region Today socially engaged art is characterised by the proliferation of independent and often self funded artists initiatives in cities such as Sofia Bucharest and Budapest Focusing on the relationships between art social capital and civil society Galliera employs sociological and political theories to reveal that while social capital is generally considered a mechanism of exclusion in the West in post socialist contexts it has been leveraged by artists and curators as a vital means of communication and action Culture Strike Laura Raicovich, 2021-12-14 A leading activist museum director explains why museums are at the center of a political storm In an age of protest cultural institutions have come under fire Protestors have mobilized against sources of museum funding as happened at the Metropolitan Museum and against board appointments forcing tear gas manufacturer Warren Kanders to resign at the Whitney That is to say nothing of demonstrations against exhibitions and artworks Protests have roiled institutions across the world from the Abu Dhabi Guggenheim to the Akron Art Museum A popular expectation has grown that galleries and museums should work for social change As Director of the Queens Museum Laura Raicovich helped turn that New York municipal institution into a public commons for art and activism organizing high powered exhibitions that doubled as political protests Then in January 2018 she resigned after a dispute with the Queens Museum board and city officials This public controversy followed the museum's responses to Donald Trump's election including her objections to the Israeli government using the museum for an event featuring Vice President Mike Pence In this lucid and accessible book Raicovich examines some of the key museum flashpoints and provides historical context for the current controversies She shows how art museums arose as colonial institutions bearing an ideology of neutrality that masks their role in upholding conservative capitalist values And she suggests ways museums can be reinvented to serve better public ends
