Selected Essays of William Carlos Williams William Carlos Williams, 1975 Selected Essays of William Carlos Williams William Carlos Williams, 1981-01-01 The Films of Stan Brakhage in the American Tradition of Ezra Pound, Gertrude Stein and Charles Olson R. Bruce Elder, 2011-08-26 Since the late 1950s Stan Brakhage has been in the forefront of independent filmmaking His body of work some seventy hours is one of the largest of any filmmaker in the history of cinema and one of the most diverse Probably the most widely quoted experimental filmmaker in history his films typify the independent cinema Until now despite well deserved acclaim there has been no comprehensive study of Brakhage's oeuvre The Films of Stan Brakhage in the American Tradition fills this void R Bruce Elder delineates the aesthetic parallels between Brakhage's films and a broad spectrum of American art from the 1920s through the 1960s This book is certain to stir the passions of those interested in artistic critique and interpretation in its broadest terms The Patient Particulars Christopher J. Knight, 1995 The Patient Particulars American Modernism and the Technique of Originality is a literary history that focuses on four canonical texts Stein's Tender Buttons 1914 Hemingway's In Our Time 1925 Williams's Spring and All 1923 and Moore's Observations 1924 grouped together for the purpose of raising a question about the manner in which American literary modernism is traditionally described Author Christopher J Knight is interested in the way that the classical covenant between word and world now considered fractured experienced undue pressure from the modernists earlier project to bridge the gap With respect to the texts named Knight argues that there is an evinced desire to think of the work as a vertical veridical act of discovery There is as such an ambition to collapse representation into presentation and even revelation an ambition that while quixotic is not without formal the technique of originality and political consequences These consequences are in fact the main focus of the book and in turn are brought forward to ask further questions about how we periodize American literary modernism's BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Future-founding Poetry Sascha Pöhlmann, 2015 An investigation of how American poetry since Whitman makes its beginnings with what means and to which political and aesthetic ends and how it addresses fundamental questions about what the future is and how it may be affected now The Failed Individual Katharina Motyl, Regina Schober, 2017-11-09 The freedom of the individual to aim high is a deeply rooted part of the American ethos but we rarely acknowledge its flip side failure If people are responsible for their individual successes is the same true of their failures The Failed Individual brings together a variety of disciplinary approaches to explore how people fail in the United States and the West at large whether economically politically socially culturally or physically How do we understand individual failure especially in the context of the zero sum game of international capitalism And what new spaces of resistance or even pleasure might failure open up for people and society The Art of Life Mutlu Konuk Blasing, 2014-06-23 Autobiographical literature especially reveals the processes by which writers convert their own historical experience into fictional form and

suggests how literary forms function in life This volume defines an original theory of autobiographical writing and provides intriguing analyses of major American works of literature The Art of Life examines the transformation of history into literature in Walden Song of Myself Henry James s Prefaces The Education of Henry Adams Paterson and the poetry of Frank O Hara These works are approached as events in themselves and are analyzed as conversions of form and history fiction and fact and even aesthetics and politics Thus the work of literature is set in the total experience of living and the writer is seen not only as an artist but also as a person in a historical political and cultural environment As well as a creator of literature the writer is viewed as a social psychological and biological being Chapters on the narcissistic economy of Walden the mythicizing of history and personality in Song of Myself the self conscious relation that makes the Prefaces of Henry James the autobiography of an artist the comic perspective of The Education of Henry Adams and the radical innovation of Paterson and O Hara s poetry provide new readings of major American works Each chapter contains some distinct critical insight which not only contributes to but can be relished apart from the book s overarching theoretical argument The Art of Life is a sophisticated theoretical discussion of autobiography with rich psychological philosophical and cultural ramifications The Cambridge Companion to American Poets Mark Richardson,2015-10-14 The Cambridge Companion to American Poets brings together thirty one essays on some fifty four American poets spanning nearly 400 years from Anne Bradstreet to contemporary performance poetry This book also examines such movements in American poetry as modernism the Harlem or New Negro Renaissance confessional poetry the Black Mountain School the New York School the Beats and L A N G U A G E poetry Its reputable host of contributors approach American poetry from perspectives as diverse as the poetry itself The result is a Companion concise enough to be read with pleasure yet expansive enough to do justice to the many traditions American poets have modified inaugurated and made their own American Poetry David Caplan,2022 American poetry s two characteristics American English as a poetic resource Convention and idiosyncrasy Auden and Eliot two complicating examples On the present and future of American poetry The Past that Poets Make Harold E. Toliver,1981 This analysis of the literary art of recapturing the past as the artist perceives it examines such questions as how a fictional narrative differs from other ways of seeing a past time to what extent literature is nontemporal and to what extent it is tied to the institutions and traditions of its era and how given works conjure up a sense of time
