Body Image, Self-Esteem, and Sexuality in Cancer Patients J. M. Vaeth, 1986-06-11

Self-Esteem Research, Theory, and Practice Christopher J. Mruk, Christopher J. J.

Mruk, 2006-05-09 Dr Mruk has produced a highly readable new edition of his original work on an often misunderstood psychological construct self esteem Mruk's view that self esteem is a critically important influence on psychological adjustment and quality of life is now an accepted tenet in personality theory Lack of self esteem is frequently a precursor to depression suicidal behavior and other personality disorders Nonetheless the clinical diagnosis of self esteem problems has lacked the basis of an overarching theory Dr Mruk s comprehensive analysis distills the literature on self esteem into practical and reliable treatment methods for both clinicians and researchers The new edition contains updated research and current terms and addresses the self esteem backlash He concludes with worksheets and detailed guidelines for conducting self esteem building workshops Added features include Major theories of self esteem Chapter on the new positive psychology 150 new references Dr Mruk has developed a writing style that is successfully oriented toward both academic and clinical audiences in the areas of counseling education nursing psychology and social work thus providing much needed information for teachers students and practicing clinicians in a clear concise way Self-Esteem Issues and Answers Michael H. Kernis,2013-04-15 Research and theory on self esteem have flourished in recent years This resurgence has produced multiple perspectives on fundamental issues surrounding the nature of self esteem and its role in psychological functioning and interpersonal processes Self Esteem Issues and Answers brings together these various perspectives in a unique format The book is divided into five sections Section I focuses on core issues pertaining to the conceptualization and assesment of self esteem and when self esteem is optimal Section II concentrates on the determinants development and modifiability of self esteem Section III examines the evolutionary significance of self esteem and its role in psychological processes and therapeutic settings Section IV explores the social relational and cultural significance of self esteem Finally Section V considers future directions for self esteem researchers practitioners parents and teachers This volume offers a wealth of perspectives from prominent researchers from different areas of psychology Each expert contributor was asked to focus his or her chapter on a central self esteem issue Three or four experts addressed each question The result is that Self Esteem Issues and Answers provides a comprehensive sourcebook of current perspectives on a wide range of central self esteem issues Enhancing Self Esteem C. Jesse Carlock,2013-10-08 Providing comprehensive coverage of self esteem this text presents a four phase process Identity Strengths and Weaknesses Nurturance and Maintenance which is described along with the resistance on encounters and provides the basis for successfully enhancing self esteem Interventions are outlined to bring together theory and methods cognitive emotional and behavioral The strategies included are applicable to several populations child teen and adult and several settings school business and community For both children and adults this book is designed to be a textbook for courses workshops and seminars It will also serve as an excellent resource for teachers and counselors and will be used by individuals for self improvement Some key features of the third edition are It translates theory into practice provides 107 activities with specific procedures and anticipated outcomes relates each activity to one of four phase processes utilizes a systematic approach to enhancing self esteem incorporates cognitive emotional and behavioral aspects of individuals Body Image Sarah Grogan,2016-09-29 Body Image provides a comprehensive summary of research on body image in men women and children drawing together research findings from the fields of psychology sociology clothing and gender studies This third edition has been thoroughly revised and updated to reflect the significant increase in research on body image since the previous edition as well as the significant cultural changes in how men's and women's bodies are viewed Data are also included from interviews and focus groups with men, women, and children who have spoken about their experiences of body image and body dissatisfaction producing a comprehensive understanding of how men and women construct and understand their bodies in the twenty-first century The only sole authored text to provide a comprehensive view of body image research focusing on men, women, and children Body Image will be invaluable to students and researchers as well as practitioners with an interest in body image and how to reduce body dissatisfaction

Self-Esteem Across the Lifespan Mary H. Guindon, 2009-10-27 As long as clinicians write increase self-esteem on treatment plans without knowing precisely what that means there is a need for information on the construct of self-esteem and how its many components can have an effect on outcomes This text defines self-esteem describes its history and evolution discusses its controversies and presents information on intervention strategies that can make a difference when it receives clinical attention Principles and concepts are applied to various clinical concerns faced by clients in each of the five developmental life stages childhood adolescence young adulthood midlife and late life Book chapters discuss a variety of specific issues such as child trauma and abuse ADHD body image and eating disorders at risk adolescents African American youth sexuality in young adulthood alcohol and other drugs issues lesbians and gay men at midlife career development intergenerational conflict in Asian Americans and loss in late life and offer detailed strategies for the development and enhancement of self-esteem Also included is an example of an 8-week self-esteem enhancement program

Cross-cultural Differences in Perspectives on the Self Virginia Murphy-Berman, John J. Berman, 2003-01-01 Cross Cultural Difference in Perspectives on the Self features the latest research in a dynamic area of inquiry and practice Considered in these pages are cross-cultural differences in the idea of the person and in models of balancing obligations to the self, family, and community Revisiting and questioning the concepts of self and self-worth the authors investigate the extent to which factors traditionally associated with psychological effectiveness intrinsic motivation assuming personal responsibility for one's actions and feeling in control unique hopeful and optimistic are culturally bound Hazel Markus and Shinobu Kitayama consider cultural differences in models of psychological agency Joan Miller critiques the meaning of the term agency analyzing the extent to which many popular theories in psychology rest on rather narrow Western models of behavior and effective functioning Steven Heine calls into question the presumed universality of some forms of cognitive processing Sheena Iyengar and Sanford DeVoe apply a cross-cultural perspective to better understand intrinsic and extrinsic motivation and the value of choice Kuo-shu Yang questions the universality of the pervasive and popular theory of self-actualization formulated by Abraham Maslow and finally Ype Poortinga reexamines not only the cultural boundaries of theory but also the very meaning of the concept of culture itself
