Self-portraits Andrea Peterson,2006 In 1915 Vera Brittain began to wonder whether it was possible to make a book out of the very essence of one's self In this study the author moves away from Brittain's already well documented political passions socialism feminism and pacifism to discuss her enduring fascination with philosophy and the problems surrounding the literary representation of subjectivity Using the psychoanalytical philosophical and literary theories known to Brittain as well as some more recent and pertinent theoretical developments the author examines not only Brittain's explicitly autobiographical writings but also all of her published novels The Dark Tide 1923 Not Without Honour 1924 Honourable Estate 1936 Account Rendered 1945 and Born 1925 1948 This insightful and accessible book details Brittain's innovative writing methods and re-evaluates her contribution to the development of the novel during the early twentieth century The author offers a new and interesting perspective on one of the most popular writers of the First World War

Frida Kahlo & Diego Rivera Gerry Souter,2019-12-09 They met in 1928 Frida Kahlo was then 21 years old and Diego Rivera was twice her age He was already an international reference she only aspired to become one An intense artistic creation along with pain and suffering was generated by this tormented union in particular for Frida On both continents America and Europe these committed artists proclaimed their freedom and left behind them the traces of their exceptional talent In this book Gerry Souter brings together both biographies and underlines with passion the link which existed between the two greatest Mexican artists of the 20th century

Frida Kahlo Gerry Souter,2015-09-15 Behind Frida Kahlo's portraits lies the story of both her life and work It is precisely this combination that draws the reader in Frida's work is a record of her life and rarely can we learn so much about an artist from what she records inside the picture frame Frida Kahlo truly is Mexico's gift to the history of art She was just eighteen years old when a terrible bus accident changed her life forever leaving her handicapped and burdened with constant physical pain But her explosive character raw determination and hard work helped to shape her artistic talent And although he was an obsessive womanizer the great painter Diego Rivera was by her side She won him over with her charm talent and intelligence and Kahlo learnt to lean on the success of her companion in order to explore the world thus creating her own legacy whilst finding herself surrounded by a close knit group of friends Her personal life was turbulent as she frequently left her relationship with Diego to one side whilst she cultivated her own bisexual relationships Despite this Frida and Diego managed to save their frayed relationship The story and the paintings that Frida left us display a courageous account of a woman constantly on a search of self discovery
