Good Faith Obligation Alex Wan, Peng Guo, 2024-09-10 This book provides a study on the relevance of good faith obligation with a specific focus on Australia and China Good faith has been hailed as one of the most important unresolved contractual issues in contract law There have been numerous judicial approaches over the years to articulate a baseline for good faith application however the direction taken in dealing with this important issue is generally unsatisfactory both in producing a coherent understanding of the role and sustaining a uniform application of good faith in contracts This book concentrates on examining whether the continued relevance of good faith in arm s length contractual relationships based on the reasonable expectations of the contracting parties can be maintained To accomplish this good faith is examined by revisiting the legal approaches from a comparative perspective in understanding whether there is a continuing role for good faith in commercial contracts

Religious Education in the Mirror of a Life Trajectory Abdulkader

Tayob, 2020-04-17 The study of religious education is of great interest in analyzing how schools and educational authorities address the demands of multicultural and multi religious societies and states As diversity increases through migration globalization and conflicts schools are faced with equally diverse challenges one of which is the religious and cultural diversity that characterizes schools and communities While many studies have focused on this change and its impact in politics school and classroom relatively few have focused on how teachers and educators have fared Sitting between the new policies and school demographics teachers and educators have shaped the policy in their engagements The study of life trajectories shows that the lines between religion and religious education are blurred in personal life histories and that positions can shift due to personal and contextual developments They point to the innovative and unexpected turns that individuals trace in their personal life journeys This book reminds us that we need to pay more attention to the teachers principals managers and public intellectuals who shape and are shaped by the changing context of religion and religious education This book was originally published as a special issue of Religion Education

"In Search of ..." Airi-Alina

Allaste, Katrin Tiidenberg, 2015-02-05 This collection of fifteen methodological texts by a group of thirty international youth and social researchers is a polyphony of scholarly voices advancing the field of qualitative inquiry in youth studies The book homes in on ways of adapting remixing and reconsidering qualitative methods in order to better serve youth researchers in the twenty first century The texts included in this collection offer honest and open accounts of searching for assembling testing and rejecting creative well known or unconventional techniques from various methodical homes As is emphasized in the title this is not so much an overview as an inquiry into conducting youth research in an environment that is constantly transforming Researchers are always seeking out the best ways to capture and co produce meaning that can be used for the greater good This book offers fresh interpretations of and feedback on inventive combinations of methods research questions and theoretical frameworks It will be of interest to all who work in youth studies and sociology and particularly useful to postgraduate students junior scholars and established researchers seeking to branch out into new terrain Narrative Research in Ministry Carl E. Savage, Dr William Presnell, 2008 We are in a real sense our stories Who we are what we think and how we act are all shaped by the many large and small stories that make up the discourse embedded in our multi sensory social experience It is this postmodern understanding of identity and reality that has prompted the authors to fashion a new way of thinking about doing research in faith communities today particularly through a Doctor of Ministry program It is our belief that in order for faith communities to define themselves and to know what to do in ministry they must first understand the multiple stories which intersect with a given ministry situation in their specific context The Research Companion Petra M. Boynton, 2016-10-04 Have you ever wanted to know an effective and ethical way to Design a study Recruit participants Report findings And improve the quality and output of your research The Research Companion focuses on the practical skills needed to complete research in the social or health sciences and development It covers the behind the scenes essentials you need to run an effective and ethical piece of research and offers clear honest advice to help avoid typical problems and improve standards and outcomes It addresses each stage of the research process from thinking of a research idea through to managing monitoring completing and reporting your project and working effectively and safely with participants and colleagues As well as covering theoretical issues in research the book is full of links to other resources and contains practical tips and stories from researchers at all levels This new edition is fully updated to reflect shifts in funding structures open access and online developments and has a link to a blog and friendly online community for readers to connect with diverse researchers all sharing experiences and offering practical advice The Research Companion brings hard earned lessons from the real world to offer invaluable guidance to all students of the social and health sciences from those just beginning their first research project to experienced researchers and practitioners It will be instrumental in raising readers competence levels and making their research more accurate ethical and productive
