A Critical Auto/Ethnography of Learning Spanish Phiona Stanley, 2016-11-10 The premise that intercultural contact produces intercultural competence underpins much rationalization of backpacker tourism and in country language education

However if insufficiently problematized pre existing constructions of cultural otherness may hinder intercultural competence development This is nowhere truer than in contexts in which wide disparities of power wealth and privilege exist and where such positionings may go unproblematized This study contributes to theoretical understandings of how intercultural competence develops through intercultural contact situations through a detailed multiple case study of three conceptually comparable contexts in which Western backpackers study Spanish in Latin America This experience often bundled with home stay volunteer work social and tourist experiences offers a rich set of empirical data within which to understand the nature of intercultural competence and the processes through which it may be developed Models of a single context free transferable intercultural competence are rejected Instead suggestions are made as to how educators might help prepare intercultural sojourners by scaffolding their intercultural reflections and problematizing their own intersectional identities and their assumptions The study is a critical ethnography with elements of autoethnographic reflection The book therefore also contributes to development of this qualitative research methodology and provides an empirical example of its application

Hallelujah Dave David Valdez,2016-12-01 A boy of Mexican immigrants has an unusual gift the recollection of his birth As he grows up in Middle America he is rocked between mischief and love elation and despair He becomes entangled in the hippie movement of the 60s Later in the midst of his chemistry studies at the University of Illinois he becomes ensnarled in the Vietnam antiwar movement It is there in high school and college where his life goals are crystallized and he maps out his life There are things that he must do and must become Yet somehow impacting him are three short letters he received in his life and a chance meeting that changes everything Though he tries he cannot escape his future It was made with hands bigger than his own My friend Dave Valdez tells the very personal story of his life journey Growing up in poverty he beats the odds as an unseen hand guides him through many situations and circumstances that would have defeated most In todays education system Dave would be labeled gifted and talented In the 1950s he was labeled Mexican Dave has a remarkable inner strength that fiercely hangs on to bits of praise and encouragement when life is unfair He refuses to embrace bitterness His is truly a story of hope As Dave navigates his teens years he develops a talent to avoid unwelcome conflicts He runs He runs from his mom his dad neighbors and cops But he could not outrun the unseen hand At the University of Illinois in his early 20s he is challenged to consider the reality of God So here the young rebellious brilliant chemistry major begins to stop running A new chapter in his life begins to unfold Dave doesnt beat you over the head with his conversion experience he reveals it as it happened and asks you to consider the hope he has found Hallelujah Dave is a great read It is the true story of my friend a man who discovers he is blessed and chooses to bless others Hearings United States.
