Cracking the Code John Mark Sheppard, 2013-05-22 Cracking the Code The Confused Traveler's Guide to Liberian English is the brainchild of John Mark Sheppard who moved with his family from the United States to Liberia when he was just three years old. He learned Liberian English as a second language as he spent his childhood and teen years immersed in the Liberian culture. After college in the United States, John Mark returned to Liberia and began a more formal study of Liberia's history, customs, and languages. Besides the more than one thousand helpful explanations of specific words or phrases, Cracking the Code The Confused Traveler's Guide to Liberian English includes a fascinating history of the people, groups, and languages of the region, a pronunciation guide, a list of Liberian proverbs, and practical how-to avoid embarrassing yourself advice for Westerners.

Through interviews with more than 1,000 individuals about their childhood and parenting experiences, she discovered common themes: nearly every person who abandoned their parents' Christian values and convictions said, "I needed something from my parents that they couldn't or didn't give me." In Cracking the Parenting Code, Heinsohn identifies six critical needs of children and six corresponding clues to meeting those needs.
