The Reformation of Prayer among Sixteenth-Century Lutherans Mary Jane Haemig,2025-03-22 In sixteenth century Germany Martin Luther and his followers engaged in a thorough reform of beliefs and practices related to prayer a reform rooted in Luther s theological insights Rejecting medieval beliefs that saw prayer as a good work Luther and his followers saw prayer as a human response to God s command to pray and promise to hear It was a good work done freely not to earn salvation but rather to converse with God Luther and his followers taught prayer in many different ways They used catechisms and catechesis to teach the basics of Christian belief including the Lord s Prayer They emphasized understanding the petitions of prayer not just reciting words They encouraged the use of the psalms as prayers and produced literature designed to make the psalms accessible and understandable They published prayerbooks to instruct in prayer and offer
