Selected Poems of Gabriela Mistral Gabriela Mistral, 2003 The first Nobel Prize in literature to be awarded to a Latin American writer went to the Chilean poet Gabriela Mistral Famous and beloved during her lifetime all over Latin America and in Europe Mistral has never been known in North America as she deserves to be The reputation of her more flamboyant and accessible friend and countryman Pablo Neruda has overshadowed hers and she has been officially sentimentalized into a poetess of children and motherhood Translations and even selections of her work in Spanish have tended to underplay the darkness the strangeness and the raging intensity of her poems of grief and pain the yearning power of her evocations of the Chilean landscape the stark music of her Round Dances the visionary splendor of her Hymns of America During her lifetime Mistral published four books Desolation Tenderness Clearcut and Winepress These are included in the Complete Nobel edition published in Madrid the Poem of Chile her last book was printed years after her death Le Guin includes poems from all five books in this volume with particular emphasis on the later work The intelligence and passion of Le Guin's selection and translation will finally allow people in the North to hear the originality power purity and intransigence of this great American voice Le Guin has published five volumes of her own poetry an English version of Lao Tzu's Tao Te Ching and a volume of mutual translation with the Argentine poet Diana Bellessi The Twins the Dream Las Gemelas El Sueño Strongly drawn to Mistral's work as soon as she discovered it Le Guin has been working on this translation for five years

Gabriela Mistral Gabriela Mistral, 2006 Gabriela Mistral 1889 1967 Chile's other great poet of the twentieth century is little known outside the Spanish speaking world and unlike Pablo Neruda has not been extensively translated into English She deserves better particularly as the first Latin American recipient of the Nobel Prize for Literature 1945 and this selection of her poetry is designed to introduce her to an English speaking public Born Lucila Godoy Alcayaga in the Elqui valley in the little north of Chile she became a schoolteacher at the age of fifteen and went on to become an educator of international renown an architect of educational reform in Mexico and a cultural administrator at the League of Nations She began publishing prose and verse pieces in newspapers and reviews at about the same age Four major collections of her poems were published in her lifetime Desolacion Desolation in 1922 Ternura Tenderness in 1924 Tala Felling in 1938 and Lagar Wine Press in 1954 followed by Poema de Chile published after her death Poems from each of these five collections are included here The landscape and people of her native Chile are a constant theme in her work even though she lived most of her adult life away from Chile largely as a consul unpaid for many years in Europe Brazil and the U S A where she died Her great love of children who were the main preoccupation of her life and whom she both understood and respected motherhood and her lack of it loss of people she loved religious faith tested and at times unorthodox are other abiding themes Her language is direct passionate rooted in local usage The whole of her work in prose as well as in verse is a reflection of the absolute integrity of her life New Selected Poems of Gabriela Mistral Gabriela Mistral,1996 Selected Poems of Gabriela Mistral.
