Selection Production Function Technical Efficiency:

Changes in Production Efficiency in China Bing Xu, Juying Zeng, Junzo Watada, 2013-08-30 Evaluating Production Efficiency in China examines production from engineering and statistics perspectives rather than from economics and mathematics perspectives The authors present an observable benchmark as the criterion of the production efficiency to replace the unobservable production frontier surface This book discusses several different computing technologies controllable variable as a path of identification changes in production efficiency by decision making on specific operating conditions and optimal resource allocation The book provides a channel to tap inside the success stories of China exploiting the way of changes in production efficiency during China's development in the past 30 years This book examines the concepts and realization of production efficiencies across all areas of the economy Also the book provides the perspective of foreign direct investment FDI absorption to identify how Chinese economy changes in production efficiency Efficiency, Equity and Well-Being in Selected African Countries Pia Nilsson, Almas Heshmati, 2019-04-24 This book addresses poverty and well being equity and efficiency in selected African countries The chapters focus on three main topics studies in the measurement and analysis of well being and vulnerability to poverty women's empowerment and the dynamics and determinants of income and efficiency among smallholders The chapters in the first section examine poverty well being and vulnerability to poverty as well as social exclusion with a focus on households in Ethiopia Rwanda and Tanzania They highlight the need to consider multidimensional measures of well being and vulnerability to poverty the need to address the distribution of vulnerability across different segments of the population as well as the importance of developing public policies aimed at poverty reduction and promoting the well being of the poor The next section deals with issues related to women's empowerment including a multidimensional case study of women's empowerment in Ghana and women's access to microfinance services in Ethiopia The final section focuses on dynamics and determinants of income and efficiency among farm households in Ethiopia and Uganda Using a variety of methodologies this volume provides a multifaceted approach to studying poverty and well being in a diverse range of locations As such it is of use to undergraduate and graduate students studying African economics or economics of poverty and well being and will be appealing to public policymakers and international aid agencies

Migration and Technical Efficiency in Cereal Production: Evidence from Burkina Faso Fleur S. Wouterse, 2008 Productivity: a Selected Annotated Bibliography, 1990 The Growth Process in East Asian Manufacturing Industries Chia-Hung Sun, 2004-01-01 Although it has been previously accepted that Hong Kong Japan Korea Singapore and Taiwan have achieved the economic miracle of maintaining high economic growth for several decades prior to the Asian financial crisis recent literature has now cast doubt upon this economic supposed success Attempting to overcome methodological limitations and underlying assumptions of other studies The Growth Process in East Asian Manufacturing Industries re-examines the role of total factor productivity TFP growth and aims to identify the sources of output growth in these East Asian economies Chia Hung Sun aims to explain how TFP growth differs from technological progress and demonstrates why this study favours the use of the varying coefficients frontier model rather than the conventional scholastic frontier approach He goes on to statistically test whether manufacturing industries in East Asia homogeneously applied the best practice production technology and investigates the TFP growth slowdown in East Asian manufacturing sectors

Petroleum Refining in India: Reform and Technical Efficiency in Public Sector Enterprises Madhusudan Datta ,2011-06-06 Petroleum refining constitutes the largest public sector industry in India in terms of turnover On view of importance of the sector and the broader trend of shifting emphasis from public to private management there is a natural interest in the nature of job in refineries and the efficiency with which it is being done In trying to address these queries the book starts with a discussion on the nature of petroleum crude and the process of its refining Discussion then proceeds to the evolution of the industry in India and pricing policy for the refined products The book takes a critical view of the concepts of productivity and efficiency An entire chapter is devoted to explain the measurements of variable relevant for the study of efficiency particularly the critical problem of measurement of capital input has been discussed in some details
