The Nigger in You J. W. Wiley, 2023-07-03 Inspiration for the award winning film How Does It Feel to be a Problem 2021 A deeply poignant tapestry of personal stories scholarship and poetry this book asks us to embrace our identity as leaders by engaging those who perpetrate dysfunctional language or behavior thereby contributing to a world in which differences are respected and validated Dr Wiley borrows the agency of nigger arguably the quintessential most universally known term of disparagement of those negatively considered the Other to re frame the word as no longer just a racial term but one that symbolizes many of the ways we disrespect or bully one another are inconsiderate of one another prejudice one another and internalize our demonization He defines the word in a way that demonstrates its equivalence to other dysfunctional language retard bitch fag trailer trash etc that suggests that those so targeted are unworthy of consideration in our society By creating a conversation around such language Dr Wiley challenges us to recognize that when we give in to our prejudices and stereotypes the nigger in you is what we are apt to see when we encounter those different from ourselves A timeless invaluable text for scholars students and higher education professionals this book stretches beyond the world of academia to earn a well deserved place on every leader's bookshelf Accompanying online material includes photographs of Dr Wiley keynoting the October 2014 Vermont National Guard's Leadership Day and keynoting ILAM May 2018 Conference in Memphis Tennessee as well as a YouTube video capturing Dr Wiley revealing the rationale behind the title of his book The NIGGER in You Challenging Dysfunctional Leadership Engaging Leadership Moments

Social Justice Education in European Multi-ethnic Schools Cinzia Pica-Smith, Rina Manuela Contini, Carmen N. Veloria, 2018-11-20 Europe is a multi ethnic society experiencing a rise of anti immigration racist xenophobic discourses and right wing political rhetoric and movements proposing legislation to further solidify structural inequality and institutionalized systems of oppression that fuel educational inequities Social Justice Education in European Multi ethnic Schools brings together researchers in the fields of sociology and education to examine debates in multicultural education Drawing on critical theory the book takes an in depth look at how these challenges are being addressed or not addressed in educational contexts and in the proposed framework of intercultural education adopted as a conceptual and educational framework by the European Union over the last two decades The book begins with an analysis of the sociological models and theories of migration and their connection to multiculturalism and interculturalism It engages in the current debate between multiculturalism and interculturalism bringing to light the political rhetoric that fueled narratives about the failures of multiculturalism which ushered in the intercultural framework It puts forth a critical analysis of interculturalism linking it to neoliberalism and policies of civic integration and the concept of governmentality Advocating for a transformative framework informed in social justice education that aims to promote more equity in schools it critically analyzes and discusses intercultural education the pedagogical extension of interculturalism as per the European documents highlighting its goals pedagogies tensions and challenges Social Justice Education in European Multi ethnic Schools will be of great interest to academics researchers and scholars in the fields of intercultural multicultural and transformative education

Racialized Schools Jesse A. Brinson, Shannon D. Smith, 2014-01-03 While racism continues to be a persistent and pervasive issue in our schools nationwide the professionals charged with creating safe and nurturing educational environments have few resources available to address racism directly Racialized Schools is on the leading edge of books that do just that and includes the latest research and praxis to help school personnel confront racism in a professional manner A national qualitative survey of students school counselors teachers and administrators sets the stage by providing readers with a 360 degree picture of today s schools and the many ways racism creeps into the lives of our students The authors present a number of different models and perspectives on understanding and addressing racism beginning with their own personal and professional experiences Significant attention is also given to empowering school personnel and students to become racially aware sensitive and competent to address racism and racial conflicts in schools Racialized Schools is not only a comprehensive look at racism within our schools it is also a practical tool for use by teachers school counselors administrators etc for implementing preventative measures to combat racism directly
