Reality Pen Reflections On Family History And Culture:

The North Carolina Historical Review, 2013 Ismaili Sources, Studies, History and Traditions Farhad Daftary, 2025-09-25 Until recently Ismailis were studied and evaluated almost exclusively on the basis of evidence often fabricated by adversaries Thus a variety of legends and misrepresentations circulated in Europe as well as among other Muslim communities regarding the teachings and practices of this Shi i Muslim community With the access of modern scholars to numerous Ismaili manuscript sources preserved in Yemen Syria Iran Central Asia and India a completely new image of the Ismailis has emerged A leading authority in Ismaili studies Farhad Daftary draws on the results of modern scholarship in the studies collected here on Ismaili history and aspects of Ismaili thought and traditions Transcultural Realities Virginia H. Milhouse, Molefi Kete Asante, Peter O. Nwosu, 2001-07-24 This text challenges the quantitative social science perspective on intercultural communication by examining critical issues from diverse perspectives Key topics include historical and religious perspectives racial and ethnic issues cross cultural adaptation and methods of researching other cultures The book takes a more critical cultural worldview of intercultural communication includes some of the major thinkers of the contemporary times including Molefi Kete Asante Ama Mazama Anthony Monteiro and Ali Mazrui is constructed so that professors and students of any cultural group might use it (Re)Writing War in Contemporary Literature and Culture Cristina Pividori, David Owen, 2024-07-09 Re Writing War in Contemporary Literature and Culture Beyond Post Memory is an exploration of war narratives through the lens of postmemory offering a critical re evaluation of how contemporary literature and cultural products reshape our understanding of past conflicts This volume presents a rich tapestry of perspectives drawing from an array of conflicts and incorporating insights from international experts across various disciplines including contemporary literature film studies visual arts and cultural studies It critically builds upon and extends Marianne Hirsch's concept of postmemory engaging with complex themes like the ethical dimensions of war writing the authenticity of representations and the creative power of art in reimagining traumatic events This study not only challenges traditional boundaries in war literature and memory studies but also resonates with contemporary concerns about societal engagement with violent pasts making it a significant addition to scholarly discourse and essential reading for those interested in the intersection of history memory and literature The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization, Volume 7 Israel Bartal, Kenneth B. Moss, 2024-01-05 Volume 7 of the Posen Library captures unprecedented transformations of Jewish culture amid mass migration global capitalism nationalism revolution and the birth of the secular self Between 1880 and 1918 traditions and regimes collapsed around the world migration and imperialism remade the lives of millions nationalism and secularization transformed selves and collectives utopias beckoned and new kinds of social conflict threatened as never before Few communities experienced the pressures and possibilities of the era more profoundly than the world's Jews This volume seventh in The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization recaptures the vibrant Jewish cultural creativity political striving social experimentation and fractious religious and secular thought that burst forth in the face of these challenges Editors Israel Bartal and Kenneth B Moss capture the full range of Jewish expression in a centrifugal age from mystical visions to unabashedly antitraditional Jewish political thought from cookbooks to literary criticism from modernist poetry to vaudeville They also highlight the most remarkable dimension of the 1880 1918 era an audacious effort by newly secular Jews to replace Judaism itself with a new kind of Jewish culture centering on this worldly aesthetic creativity by a posited Jewish nation and the secular modern and free individuals who composed it This volume is an essential starting point for anyone who wishes to understand the divided Jewish present The Trans/National Study of Culture Doris

Bachmann-Medick,2014-08-22 This volume introduces key concepts for a trans national expansion in the study of culture Using translation as an analytical category it explores what is translatable and untranslatable between nation specific approaches such as British American cultural studies German Kulturwissenschaften and other traditions in studying culture The range of articles included in the book covers both theoretical reflections and specific case studies that analyze the tensions and compatibilities amongst contemporary perspectives on the study of culture By testing various key concepts translation cultural transfer travelling concepts this volume reflects on an essential vocabulary and common points of reference for scholars seeking new frameworks and methodologies for the foundation of a trans national study of culture that is commensurate with the entangled nature of our world society Pentecostal Theology and Ecumenical Theology

,2019-09-16 Pentecostal Theology and Ecumenical Theology Interpretations Intersections and Inspirations brings together globally recognized and newer scholars to address the complex relationship between Pentecostalism and the Ecumenical Movement Historical essays address topics such as early Pentecostal responses to and participation in ecumenism explicit convergences between Pentecostal and ecumenical initiatives and the particular contributions of Pentecostals and ecumenists outside North America and Europe Constructive theological essays address intersections between ecumenical theology and systematic loci in Pentecostal perspective in the hope that mutual exchange and criticism will lead to ways to improve both Never before have this many scholars of Pentecostalism combined their efforts in order to focus on the relationship between Pentecostal theology and ecumenical theology past present and future Love, Honour and God

Mikhail Pelevin,2025-08-28 Love Honour and God tells about the talented and determined people who challenged the dominance of the Persophone written culture and created literature in their mother tongue Pashto Offering insights into the lives and literary accomplishments of many acclaimed and less known Pashtun authors of the early modern period this book traces the development of Pashto writings from around 1530 to 1830 as a considered pursuit of an educational mission and a verbal affirmation of ethnic identity Based primarily on original texts in Pashto verse and prose the book explores social views aesthetic preferences and spiritual values that underlie modern ideologies and cultural awareness of Pashto speaking communities in Afghanistan and Pakistan Gay Fatherhood Ellen Lewin,2023-07-19 Men are often thought to have less interest in parenting than women and gay men are generally assumed to prefer pleasure over responsibility. The toxic combination of these two stereotypical views has led to a lack of serious attention being paid to the experiences of gay fathers. But the truth is that more and more gay men are setting out to become parents and succeeding. Gay Fatherhood aims to tell their stories. Ellen Lewin takes as her focus people who undertake the difficult process of becoming fathers as gay men rather than having become fathers while married to women. These men face unique challenges in their quest for fatherhood, negotiating specific bureaucratic and financial conditions as they pursue adoption or surrogacy and juggling questions about their future child's race, age, sex, and health. Gay Fatherhood chronicles the lives of these men, exploring how they cope with political attacks from both the family-values right and the radical queer left while also shedding light on the evolving meanings of family in twenty-first century America.
