The Routledge Handbook of Classics, Colonialism, and Postcolonial Theory Katherine Blouin, Ben Akrigg, 2024-07-29 This handbook explores the ways in which histories of colonialism and postcolonial thought and theory cast light on our understanding of the ancient Mediterranean world and the discipline of Classics utilizing a wide body of case studies and providing avenues for future research and discussion It brings together chapters by a wide international and intersectional range of scholars coming from a variety of backgrounds and sub disciplinary perspectives and from across the chronological and geographical scope of Classics Chapters cover the state of current research into ancient Mediterranean and South Central and West Asian histories They provide case studies to illustrate both how postcolonial thought has already illuminated our understanding of the ancient Mediterranean world and beyond as well as its potential for the future Chapters also provide opportunities for reflection on the current state of the discipline An introduction by the volume editors offers a survey of the development of postcolonial theory its relationship to other bodies of theory and its connections to Classics Toward the end of the book three scholars with different career and disciplinary perspectives provide short reflections on the themes of the volume and the directions of future research The

Routledge Handbook of Classics Colonialism and Postcolonial Theory offers an impressive collection of current research and thought on the subject for students and scholars in classical studies understood in its larger sense as well as in related disciplines such as Archaeology Ancient History Imperial History and the History of Colonialism Reception Studies and Museum Studies For anyone interested in classical antiquity it provides an engaging introduction to a potentially bewildering but ultimately vital and enriching body of thought and theory

Understanding the Somalia Conflagration Afyare Abdi Elmi, 2010-06-04 Is peace building in Somalia possible Devastated by a US backed Ethiopian invasion and years of civil war Somalia has long been without a central government against this background of violence and instability Somali academic Afyare Abdi Elmi explains the multiple dimensions of the conflict seeking a peace building consensus Somalia is a failed state and a Muslim state a combination the West assumes means it s a breeding ground for extremism Coupled with the country s reputation as a piracy hotspot this combination of internal division and outside interference makes for an intensely hostile landscape Elmi shows that only by addressing the problem of the statelessness in the country can the long process of peace begin He highlights clan identities Islam and other countries in the region as the key elements in any peace building effort setting out a path for the international community to follow

Feminist Knowledge (RLE Feminist Theory) Sneja Gunew, 2013-05-20 The minority feminist viewpoints have often been submerged in the interests of maintaining a mainstream universal model of feminism This anthology takes into account the various differences among women while looking at the important areas of feminist struggle While sisterhood is indeed global it certainly does not mean that all women are required to submerge their specific differences and assimilate to a universal model Consequently the collection includes essays by leaders in the field of post structuralist enquiry as well as by those immersed in the new spirituality and the social consequences of recent biological research Other essays reflect the political struggles which continue to be waged with different strategies by socialist and radical feminists and the self searching analyses undertaken by feminists uneasy about their inclusion within educational institutions and the radical new interpretations of sexuality within the cultural domain The collection begins with a critique of white mainstream feminism emanating from Aboriginal women in Australia The implications of the critique indicate that there is a pervasive racism within the feminist movement

Postmodern Theologies Terrence W. Tilley, John Christopher Edwards, Tami

England, H. Frederick Felice, Stuart Kendall, 2005-06-30 An introduction and evaluation of contemporary approaches to theology Postmodern Theologies sets out to discern movements shaping the postmodern study of religion in a unique collaborative venture born of a postgraduate seminar at Florida State University While some might say that theology after the death of God is like biology after the end of life a discipline without a subject Postmodern Theologies identifies four general patterns of postmodernisms in theology today constructive theologies with Helmut Peukert David Ray Griffin and David Tracy cited as examples postmodernisms of dissolution Thomas J J Altizer Mark C Taylor and Edith Wyschogrod postliberal theologies George Lindbeck and communal praxis exemplified by Gustavo Gutierrez and other Latin American theologians and James Wm McClendon and Sharon Welch among North Americans These theologies eschew debates on traditional religious foundations to define true religion as the result of rather than the impetus to living one's beliefs As these disparate approaches to theology are not directly comparable the final chapter of Postmodern Theologies instead analyzes how each one accounts for the plurality of religions Exploring the postmodern strategies for coping with one of the most difficult questions in any theological age offers a fascinating way to assess their inherent strengths and weaknesses
