Neutral Buoyancy Tim Ecott, 2001 In the shock of bereavement Tim Ecott went scuba diving in the Indian Ocean What began as an underwater excursion to displace his grief became an obsession that has shaped his life In Neutral Buoyancy he shares his passion for the sea The Mysterious Science of the Sea, 1775-1943 Natascha Adamowsky, 2015-10-06 The depths of the oceans are the last example of terra incognita on earth Adamowsky presents a study of the sea arguing that contrary to popular belief post Enlightenment discourse on the sea was still subject to mystery and wonder and not wholly rationalized by science Killers in the Water - The New Super Sharks Terrorising The World's Oceans Sue Blackhall, 2012-07-27 Sharks are intriguing and beautiful creatures but they can also be deadly As we humans have explored the world's oceans and exploited them for tourism and recreation we have found ourselves coming into contact with more and more sharks And the outcome can be fatal From the Seychelles to South Africa and Australia to North America tourists divers and surfers have seemingly found themselves under increased threat from unprovoked shark attacks Fatal attacks have occurred in locations that were previously thought to be safe and in late 2010 the Egyptian resort of Sharm el Sheikh was rocked by an incredible five shark attacks in a matter of weeks But are sharks really ruthless vicious killers or are they simply reacting to humans invading their habitat Has the number of shark attacks increased in recent years What can be done to prevent shark attacks All these questions and more are answered in this fascinating book MotorBoating , 2002-12
