Volume II: 1850-1865 Frank Luther Mott, 1938 The first volume of this work covering the period from 1741 1850 was issued in 1931 by another publisher and is reissued now without change under our imprint The second volume covers the period from 1850 to 1865 the third volume the period from 1865 to 1885 For each chronological period Mr Mott has provided a running history which notes the occurrence of the chief general magazines and the developments in the field of class periodicals as well as publishing conditions during that period the development of circulations advertising payments to contributors reader attitudes changing formats styles and processes of illustration and the like Then in a supplement to that running history he offers historical sketches of the chief magazines which flourished in the period These sketches extend far beyond the chronological limitations of the period The second and third volumes present altogether separate sketches of seventy six magazines including The North American Review The Youth's Companion The Liberator The Independent Harper's Monthly Leslie's Weekly Harper's Weekly The Atlantic Monthly St Nicholas and Puck The whole is an unusual mirror of American civilization Colonial Comics, Volume II Jason Rodriguez, 2017-01-15 A massacre in Boston A tea party A shot

heard around the world But who was the first casualty of the massacre How did the tea get to Boston Harbor What was the Battle of Concord like for a Minute Man Colonial Comics New England 1750 1775 expands the frame of this important period of American history Unconventional characters come to life including gravedigging medical students counterfeiters female playwrights instigators of civil disobedience newspaper editors college students rum traders freemen and slaves Revival: A History of Modern Culture: Volume II (1934) Preserved Smith,2018-01-16 The understanding of history can be advanced only by the combination or alternation of analysis and synthesis Detailed research and generalizing survey are not antiethical but complementary For a long time however the specialist has reigned supreme in our schools The need is now surely for a return to synoptic writing The present work was undertaken to supply the need of a synthesis It is a map of a large region not a geological chart of a square mile or the plan of a single city Its value if any lies in its view of the interrelations of large tracts of social and intellectual life not in the intensive investigation of narrow fields The American Catalogue ,1891

Trübner's American and Oriental Literary Record ,1865 Winslow Homer and the Camera Frank H. Goodyear III,Dana E. Byrd,2018-01-01 A revelatory exploration of Winslow Homer s engagement with photography shedding new light on his celebrated paintings and works on paper One of the greatest American painters of the 19th century Winslow Homer 1836 1910 also maintained a deep engagement with photography throughout his career Focusing on the important yet often overlooked role that photography played in Homer s art this volume exposes Homer s own experiments with the camera he first bought one in 1882 It also explores how the medium of photography and the larger visual economy influenced his work as a painter watercolorist and printmaker at a moment when new print technologies inundated the public with images Frank Goodyear and Dana Byrd demonstrate that photography offered Homer new ways of seeing and representing the world from his early commercial engravings sourced from contemporary photographs to the complex relationship between his late career paintings of life in the Bahamas Florida and Cuba and the emergent trend of tourist photography The authors argue that Homer s understanding of the camera s ability to create an image that is simultaneously accurate and capable of deception was vitally important to his artistic practice in all media Richly illustrated and full of exciting new discoveries Winslow Homer and the Camera is a long overdue examination of the ways in which photography shaped the vision of one of America s most original painters Trübner's American and Oriental literary record ,1865 The North American Review ,1849 Making the "America of Art" Naomi Z. Sofer,2005 Making the America of Art demonstrates that beginning in the 1850s women writers challenged the terms of the Scottish Common Sense philosophy which had made artistic endeavors acceptable in the new Republic by subordinating aesthetic motivation to moral and educational goals Harriet Beecher Stowe and Augusta Jane Evans drew on Ruskin to argue for the creation of a religiously based national aesthetic In the postbellum years Louisa May Alcott Rebecca Harding Davis Elizabeth Stuart Phelps and Constance Fenimore Woolson continued the process in a series of writings that revolved around three central areas of concern the place of the popular in the realm of high art the role of the genius and the legacy of the Civil War Sofer significantly revises the history of 19th century American women s authorship by detailing the gradual process that produced women writers wholly identified with literary high culture at the century s end BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
