New Collected Poems Iain Crichton Smith:

New Collected Poems Iain Crichton Smith, 2011-08-01 Iain Crichton Smith's Collected Poems was awarded the Saltire Prize when it was published in 1992. This completely revised and enlarged edition includes seventy additional poems mostly from the four books the poet published in the 1990s: Ends and Beginnings 1994, The Human Face 1996, The Leaf and The Marble 1998, and A Country for Old Men and My Canadian Uncle 2000, together with extracts from his 1971 translation of Sorley Maclean's epic D in do Eimhir agus D in Eile. Poems to Eimhir 1943, a founding moment of modern Gaelic poetry. The new introduction by Matthew McGuire of the Department of Scottish Literature, University of Glasgow, illuminates the range of Crichton Smith's achievement as a poet of Scotland and Europe, rooted in local tradition yet in Edwin Morgan's words open to the whole intellectual world.

Deer on the High Hills Iain Crichton Smith, 2021-05-27 Growing up on the Isle of Lewis, Iain Crichton Smith spoke only Gaelic until he was five. But at school in Bayble and then Stornoway, everything had to be in English. Like many islanders before and since, his culture is divided: two languages, two histories, entailing exile, a central theme of his poetry. His divided perspective sharply delineates the tyranny of history and religion, of the cramped life of small communities; it gives him a tender eye for the struggle of women and men in a world defined by denials. Deer on the High Hills. Selected Poems includes forty years' work and proves that big themes—love, history, power, submission, death—can be addressed without the foil of irony and acquire resonance when given a local habitation and a voice that risks pure, impassioned speech. Editor John Greening provides indexes, a preface, and an essay on the life and work of this important poet.

The Cambridge Companion to British Poetry, 1945-2010 Edward Larrissy, 2016 This Companion brings together sixteen essays that explore the full diversity of British poetry since the Second World War. Focusing on famous and neglected names alike, from Dylan Thomas to John Agard, leading scholars provide readers with insight into the ongoing importance and profundity of post-war poetry.

A Companion to Scottish Literature Gerard Carruthers, 2023-12-08 A Companion to Scottish Literature offers fresh readings of major authors and periods of Scottish literary production from the first millennium to the present. Bringing together contributions by many of the world's leading experts in the field, this comprehensive resource provides the historical background of Scottish literature, highlights new critical approaches, and explores wider cultural and institutional contexts. Dealing with texts in the languages of Scots, English, and Gaelic, the Companion offers modern perspectives on the historical milieu, thematic contexts, and canonical writers of Scottish literature. Original essays apply the most up-to-date critical and scholarly analyses to a uniquely wide range of topics, such as Gaelic literature, national and diasporic writing, children's literature, Scottish drama and theatre, gender and sexuality, and women's writing. Critical readings examine William Dunbar, Robert Burns, Walter Scott, Robert Louis Stevenson, Muriel Spark, and Carol Ann Duffy, amongst others. With full references and guidance for further reading, as well as numerous links to online resources, A Companion to Scottish Literature is essential reading for advanced students and scholars of Scottish literature.

well as academic and non academic readers with an interest in the subject Contemporary Poetry and Contemporary Science Robert Crawford, 2006-09-07 A unique collaboration between leading poets and scientists Contemporary Poetry and Contemporary Science demonstrates through its form and through practice as well as reflection that poetry and science can meet with productive results Crossing between disciplines and between prose and verse the book shows how modes of scientific knowledge and of poetic making continue to be intertwined Often drawing on Scottish intellectual traditions rather than on the notorious two cultures argument Contemporary Poetry and Contemporary Science argues through examples for a more open and mutually sympathetic engagement of poetry and science in contemporary culture Provocative nimble and surprising this book is in several senses a crossover volume In its gathering of essays as well as poems it is the first book of its kind Readers can see how a poet and a solar physicist may share working assumptions how poetic insight may inform psychiatric practice how a poet's encounter with an MRI scanner leads to a fresh neurological experiment As well as new essays by internationally distinguished poets scientists and literary critics including Simon Armitage Gillian Beer Jocelyn Bell Burnell Miroslav Holub Kay Redfield Jamison and Edwin Morgan the book includes a series of specially commissioned poems by John Burnside Michael Donaghy Sarah Maguire Paul Muldoon Don Paterson and others Each poem is introduced by the scientist whose work prompted the poem Though Contemporary Poetry and Contemporary Science exposes and investigates strains between the way poets and scientists see and reinvent the world the book is most arresting and enjoyable when it shows just how often poets and scientists agree An Introduction to Twentieth-Century Poetry in English R.P.
