New Digital Cinema Reinventing The Moving Image Short Cuts Wallflower:

New Digital Cinema Holly Willis, 2005 This introduction to contemporary digital cinema tracks its intersection with video art music video animation print design and live club events to create an avant garde for the new millennium It begins by investigating digital cinema and its contribution to innovations in the feature film format examining animation and live action hybrids the gritty aesthetic of the Dogme 95 filmmakers the explosions of frames within frames and the evolution of the ambient narrative film This study then looks at the creation of new genres and moving image experiences as what we know as cinema enters new venues and formats New Digital Cinema Reinventing the Moving Image Holly Willis, 2005

War Cinema Guy Westwell, 2006 War Cinema presents an introduction to and overview of films that take war as their main theme Framing the era with Apocalypse Now and Apocalypse Now Redux the author initially focuses on Vietnam on film in the 1970s and 1980s and how this divisive war was represented Film Performance Andrew Klevan, 2005 Performers make a crucial contribution to the achievement of narrative films By moving through exemplary sequences this book closely follows the movement and behaviour of screen performers Charlie Chaplin Laurel and Hardy Cary Grant Katherine Hepburn Marlene Dietrich Barbara Stanwyck Richard Widmark and by emphasising their relationship to other aspects of film style camera location and plot it develops accounts that are specific and involved This study concentrates on films from the Golden Age of Hollywood and moment by moment descriptions enable fresh interpretations to emerge and evolve These reveal the significance and intensity of a performer's engagement with the world of a film Film Noir Mark Bould, 2005 Film Noir explores the murky world of a genre responsible for many of film's most enduring images Mark Bould discusses problems of definition and the often ambiguous nature of film noir and looks at contemporary neo noir films Iconic and enduring film noir attracted great stars Bogart Bacall Mitchum Lancaster many of the best directors of the postwar period Wilder Lang Preminger Hawks Siodmak Welles and in considering the history and continuing importance of noir from Weimar Cinema to Sin City this book is an indispensable guide to this still popular genre Prison Movies Kevin Kehrwald, 2017-02-14 Prison Movies Cinema Behind Bars traces the public fascination with incarceration from the silent era to the present Often considered an offshoot of the gangster film the prison film precedes the gangster film and is in many ways its opposite Rather than focusing on tragic figures heading for a fall the prison film focuses on fallen characters seeking redemption The gangster's perverse pursuit of the American dream is irrelevant to the prisoner for whom that dream has already failed At their core prison films are about self preservation at the hands of oppressive authority Like history itself prison films display long stretches of idleness punctuated by eruptions of violence dangerous moments that signify liberation and the potential for change The enclosed world of the prison is a highly effective microcosm one that forces characters and audiences alike to confront vexing issues of race class gender and sexuality These portrayals of men and women behind bars have thrived because they deal with such fundamental human themes as freedom individuality power justice and mercy Films examined
