People In The News Matt Damon:

Hollywood and China in the Post-postclassical Era Lara Herring, 2024-03-18 This book examines the contemporary relationship between Hollywood and China as case studies that help to define a new era in Hollywood film industry style and economics which is termed the post postclassical period Centred around a case study of Legendary Entertainment the analysis shows how the studio adopted and adapted its global strategies in order to gain access to and favour within the Chinese film market and how issues of censorship and financial performance affected the choices they made Demonstrating Legendary s identity as a post postclassical studio and examining how this plays into its China strategy this book explores how this particular case and the necessary analysis of wider political economic relations offer a periodisation of the contemporary Hollywood China relationship This book will interest students and scholars of media and film studies as well as academics whose research interests include global cinema Hollywood Chinese cinema transnational cinema and film industry studies

Rethinking America's Past Robert Cohen, Sonia E. Murrow, 2021-11-01 No introductory work of American history has had more influence over the past forty years than Howard Zinn s A People s History of the United States which since its publication in 1980 has sold more than three million copies Zinn s iconoclastic critique of American militarism racism and capitalism has drawn bitter criticism from the Right most recently from President Donald Trump who at his White House Conference on American History in 2020 denounced Zinn as a Left propagandist and accused teachers aligned with Zinn of indoctrinating students to hate America and be ashamed of its history Rethinking America s Past is the first work to use archival and classroom evidence to assess the impact that Zinn s classic work has had on historical teaching and learning and on American culture This evidence refutes Trump s charges showing that rather than indoctrinating students Zinn s book has been used by teachers to have students debate and rethink conventional versions of American history Rethinking America s Past also explores the ways Zinn s work fostered deeper more critical renderings of the American past in movies and on stage and television and traces the origins and assesses the strengths and weaknesses of A People s History in light of more recent historical scholarship

Gender, Sexuality, and the Cultural Politics of Men's Identity Robert Mundy, Harry Denny, 2019-10-02 This book considers mass media and contemporary cultural trends to examine masculinity at a point of unprecedented change While sexual and gender politics have always been fraught the long unexamined privilege associated with masculinity is now subject to intense scrutiny marked by a host of complex factors As past markers of masculine norms have been challenged on cultural social and economic fronts men occupy public space ever aware that how they interact with others is questioned and questionable What does manhood mean Who is included in its dominant formations What performances signify membership in the club How are men reading this contemporary moment and to what extent does cultural literacy inform maintain or challenge normative male identities and subsequent performances This work examines such questions through language and symbolic meaning and challenges its readers to critically examine what men know and how they understand and embody gender and sexuality in a post millennial society Gender Sexuality and the Cultural Politics of Men s Identity in the New Millennium Literacies of Masculinity crosses academic disciplines and will be highly relevant in composition rhetoric gender studies masculinity studies and cross curricular courses that take up popular contemporary culture as well as gender sexuality race and class It has been designed with both undergraduate and graduate students in mind

Unassailable Ideas Ilana Redstone, John Villasenor, 2020-09-22 Open inquiry and engagement with a diverse range of views are long cherished and central tenets of higher education and are pivotal to innovation and knowledge creation Yet free inquiry on American campuses is hampered by a climate that constrains teaching research and overall discourse In Unassailable Ideas Ilana Redstone and John Villasenor examine the dominant belief system on American campuses its uncompromising enforcement through social media and the consequences for higher education They argue that two trends in particular the emergent role of social media in limiting academic research and knowledge discovery and a campus culture increasingly intolerant to diverse views and open inquiry are fundamentally reshaping higher education Redstone and Villasenor further identify and explain how three well intentioned unwritten rules regarding identity define the current campus climate They present myriad case studies illustrating the resulting impact on education knowledge creation and increasingly the world beyond campus They also provide a set of recommendations to build a new campus climate that would be more tolerant toward diverse perspectives and open inquiry An insightful analysis of the current state of academia Unassailable Ideas highlights an environment in higher education that forecloses entire lines of research entire discussions and entire ways of conducting classroom teaching
