New Ballads John Davidson:

John Davidson, First of the Moderns John Sloan, 1995 As long ago as 1917 Virginia Woolf expressed surprise that anyone as good as John Davidson should be so little famous Now at last criticism has established Davidson as a key figure in the emergence of literary modernism as the best Scottish poet between Robert Burns and Hugh MacDiarmid and as an important influence on the younger poets of his day most notably T S Eliot In this the first biography of Davidson for more than thirty years John Sloan presents a wealth of new information about Davidson's life including his time in London and the ties which connect him to Sherard's circle to Wilde Yeats and the Rhymers Club John Davidson First of the Moderns explores Davidson's career in London as a penniless author struggling to reconcile the freedom to experience demanded by the avant garde artist in the age of the Decadence with the obligations of family and to combine his ambition for a many sided reputation as a poet novelist and playwright with his need to survive in the commercial rough and tumble of Fleet Street the theatre and Paternoster Row The conditions of authorship the literary scandals and rows of Fleet Street and the revelations of the characters involved here provide the literary background to the life of John Davidson The picture that emerges is not simply of a late Victorian rebel but of a proto Modernist who from his recovery from a breakdown in 1896 to his strange disappearance and death in 1909 pioneered a new idiom and subject matter for twentieth century verse New Ballads, 1897 The Bookman, 1897 The Fin-de-siècle Poem Joseph Bristow, 2005 Featuring innovative research by emergent and established scholars The Fin de Siecle Poem throws new light on the remarkable diversity of poetry produced at the close of the nineteenth century in England Opening with a detailed preface that shows why literary historians have frequently underrated fin de siecle poetry the collection explains how a strikingly rich body of lyrical and narrative poems anticipated many of the developments traditionally attributed to Modernism Each chapter in turn provides insights into the ways in which late nineteenth century poets represented their experiences of the city their attitudes toward sexuality their responses to empire and their interest in religious belief The eleven essays presented by editor Joseph Bristow pay renewed attention to the achievements of such legendary writers as Oscar Wilde John Davidson Ernest Dowson Lionel Johnson and W B Yeats whose careers have always been associated with the 1890s This book also explores the lesser known but equally significant advances made by notable women poets including Michael Field Amy Levy Charlotte Mew Alice Meynell A Mary F Robinson and Graham R Tomson The Fin de Siecle Poem brings together innovative research on poetry that has been typecast as the attenuated Victorianism that was rejected by Modernism The contributors underscore the remarkable innovations made in English poetry of the 1880s and 1890s and show how woman poets stood shoulder to shoulder with their better known male contemporaries Joseph Bristow is professor of English at the University of California Los Angeles where he edits the journal Nineteenth Century Literature His recent books include The Cambridge Companion to Victorian Poetry Oscar Wilde Contextual Conditions and the variorum edition of Oscar Wilde's The Picture of Dorian Gray A Bookman's
