

DELIVER ONLINE PRESENTATIONS WITH CONFIDENCE

Follow these tips and you'll feel more confident in your next online presentation!

1 Dial-in before the meeting starts

You should have enough time to set everything up, test your technology and greet everyone in a relaxed manner as they dial-in.

3 Dress appropriately

Dress as you would in the office, not only will this create a good impression, but you'll feel more confident as well.

5 Manage your audience

If it's your presentation, decide when you would like to handle questions and if you want to mute participants to prevent any background noise.

7 Stand (or sit) tall

Avoid slouching and remember to use good posture while you are presenting on camera.

9 Use hand gestures

Even in online meetings, you can use hand gestures as you're speaking. Just make sure your hands are in view of your camera.

2 Prepare your technology

Make sure your camera, headphones, and microphone are all working before your meeting.

4 Professional surroundings and background

Turn off any devices that could interpret you and move anything distracting from your background or use virtual backgrounds.

6 Make eye contact with your camera

Periodically looking at the camera gives the impression that you are looking into the eyes of the participants and helps to keep them engaged.

8 Keep everyone engaged

When asking questions, try to address individuals by their name. You can also use quizzes, breakout rooms and a variety of media, such as video.

10 Use proper lighting

Work in a well-lit room, ideally with the main light source in-front of you so that your face is clearly visible and evenly lit.

Practice your online presentation skills with VirtualSpeech in web-based simulations.
