The African American Theatrical Body Soyica Diggs Colbert, 2011-10-06 Presenting an innovative approach to performance studies and literary history Soyica Colbert argues for the centrality of black performance traditions to African American literature including preaching dancing blues and gospel and theatre itself showing how these performance traditions create the performative ground of African American literary texts Across a century of literary production using the physical space of the theatre and the discursive space of the page W E B Du Bois Zora Neale Hurston James Baldwin August Wilson and others deploy performances to re situate black people in time and space The study examines African American plays past and present including A Raisin in the Sun Blues for Mister Charlie and Joe Turner s Come and Gone demonstrating how African American dramatists stage black performances in their plays as acts of recuperation and restoration creating sites that have the potential to repair the damage caused by slavery and its aftermath

Miller, 2015-10-29 The Cambridge Companion to the American Modernist Novel offers a comprehensive analysis of US modernism as part of a wider global literature Both modernist and American literary studies have been reshaped by waves of scholarship that unsettled prior consensus regarding America s relation to transnational diasporic and indigenous identities and aesthetics the role of visual and musical arts in narrative experimentation science and technology studies and allegiances across racial ethnic gendered and sexual social groups Recent writing on US immigration imperialism and territorial expansion has generated fresh and exciting reasons to read or reread modernist novelists both prominent and forgotten Written by a host of leading scholars this Companion provides unique interpretations and approaches to modernist themes techniques and texts

African American Literature in Transition, 1960-1970: Volume 13 Shelly Eversley,2022-11-24 This volume considers innovations transitions and traditions in both familiar and unfamiliar texts and moments in 1960s African American literature and culture It interrogates declarations of race authenticity personal and collective empowerment political action and aesthetics within this key decade It is divided into three sections The first section engages poetry and music as pivotal cultural form in 1960s literary transitions The second section explains how literature culture and politics intersect to offer a blueprint for revolution within and beyond the United States The final section addresses literary and cultural moments that are lesser known in the canon of African American literature and culture This book presents the 1960s as a unique commitment to art when Black became a political identity one in which racial social justice became inseparable from aesthetic practice Troubling Vision Nicole R. Amy Abugo Ongiri,2010 Exploring the interface between the cultural politics of the Black Power and the Black Arts movements and the production of postwar African American popular culture Amy Ongiri shows how the reliance of Black politics on an oppositional image of African Americans was the formative moment in the construction of authentic blackness as a cultural identity While other books have adopted either a literary approach to the language poetry and arts of these movements or a historical analysis of them Ongiri s captures the cultural and political interconnections of the postwar period by using an interdisciplinary methodology drawn from cinema studies and music theory She traces the emergence of this Black aesthetic from its origin in the Black Power movement s emphasis on the creation of visual icons and the Black Arts movement s celebration of urban vernacular culture Not the Other Avant-Garde James M. Harding,John

Rouse,2010-03-10 Almost without exception studies of the avant garde take for granted the premise that the influential experimental practices associated with the avant garde began primarily as a European phenomenon that in turn spread around the world These ten original essays especially commissioned for Not the Other Avant Garde forge a radically new conception of the avant garde by demonstrating the many ways in which the first and second wave avant gardes were always already a transnational phenomenon an amalgam of often contradictory performance traditions and practices developed in various cultural locations around the world including Africa the Middle East Mexico Argentina India and Japan Essays from leading scholars and critics including Marvin Carlson Sudipto Chatterjee John Conteh Morgan Peter Eckersall Harry J Elam Jr Joachim Fiebach David G Goodman Jean Graham Jones Hannah Higgins and Adam Vers nyi suggest collectively that the very concept of the avant garde is possible only if conceptualized beyond the limitations of Eurocentric paradigms Not the Other Avant Garde is groundbreaking in both avant garde studies and performance studies and will be a valuable contribution to the fields of theater studies modernist studies art history literature and music history Joins the growing field of critical and transnational theories on the arts its grounding in live performance and its foregrounding of the performative human body presents a new theoretical paradigm that is pathbreaking Haiping Yan University of California Los Angeles James M Harding is Associate Professor of English at Mary Washington University He is author of Adorno and A Writing of the Ruins Essays on Modern Aesthetics and Anglo American Literature and Culture and editor of Contours of the Theatrical Avant Garde Performance and Textuality John Rouse is Associate Professor of Theater at the University of California San Diego He is author of Brecht and the West German Theatre
