Embracing Work Readiness in Teaching Language Arts Maria Nerizza S. Veloso-Liyanage, 2015-08-05 No one can discount the reality that in today's world more than ever employability skills are very essential most especially if you choose to work in a multicultural country For the past ten years of working the author has proven that it is one's skills that propel an employee to perform in the workplace and contribute to the growth of the company One's qualification enables a person to secure a job but it is his or her skills that would nourish his or her worth in the organization Embracing Work Readiness in Teaching Language Arts was written for the purpose of helping teachers equip their students with the ability to operate in the English language and at the same time prepare their students for workplace life This book is targeted at teachers who teach third to fourth year high school students and in the preuniversity level This book provides lesson plans activities and worksheets that are carefully constructed to link work readiness skills and English language teaching There are also pieces of advice shared in this book that the author has drawn from her personal experiences This book incorporates activities on the macro skills listening speaking reading and writing and micro skills grammar and vocabulary of the English language

The Art of Commitment Pacing Thomas Meyer, 2024-05-31 Advanced guidance for institutional investors academics and researchers on how to manage a portfolio of private capital funds The Art of Commitment Pacing Engineering Allocations to Private Capital provides a much needed analysis of the issues that face investors as they incorporate closed ended funds targeting illiquid private assets such as private equity private debt infrastructure real estate into their portfolios These private capital funds once considered alternative and viewed as experimental are becoming an increasingly standard component of institutional asset allocations However many investors still follow management approaches that remain anchored in the portfolio theory for liquid assets but that often lead to disappointing results when applied to portfolios of private capital funds where practically investors remain committed over nearly a decade When planning for such commitments investment managers and researchers are faced with practical questions such as How to measure and control the real exposure to private assets How to forecast cash flows for commitments to private capital funds What ranges for their returns and lifetime are realistic and how can the investor's skill be factored in Over which dimensions should a portfolio be diversified and how much diversification is enough How can the impact of co-investments or secondaries be modelled How to design pacing plans that lead to resilient and efficient portfolios What stress scenarios should be considered and how can they be applied These are just examples of the many questions for which answers are provided The Art of Commitment Pacing describes established and new methodologies for building up and controlling allocations to such investments This book offers a systematic approach for building up and controlling allocations to such investments The Art of Commitment Pacing is a valuable addition to the libraries of investment managers as well as portfolio and risk managers involved in institutional investment The book will also be of interest to advanced students of finance researchers and other practitioners who require a detailed understanding of forecasting and portfolio management methodologies Resources in Education, 2000 Hands Down, Speak Out Kassia Omohundro Wedekind, Christy Hermann Thompson, 2023-10-10 Math coach Kassia Omohundro Wedekind and literacy coach Christy Hermann Thompson have spent years comparing notes on how to build effective classroom communities across the content areas How they wondered can we lay the groundwork for classroom conversations that are less teacher directed and more conducive to student to student dialogue Their answers start with Hands Down Conversations an innovative discourse structure in which students ideas and voices take the lead while teachers focus on listening and facilitating In addition to classrom stories and examples Christy and Kassia provide 28 micro lessons designed to help K 5 students develop and excercise their speaking and listening muscles Inside Hands Down Speak Out you ll learn how to Build talk communities that are accessible to everyone especially those whose voices are often traditionally left out of classroom discourse Analyze classroom conversations in order to plan next steps for developing the classroom talk community Plan and facilitate three types of conversations across literacy and math Christy and Kassia believe that the development of dialogue skills is worth the investment of time not only becuase it has the power to deepen our understanding of literacy and mathematics but also to deepen our understanding of ourselves our communities and the world
