Hitmen for Hire Mark Shaw, 2017-07-10 Hitmen for Hire takes the reader on a journey like no other navigating a world of paid hitmen informers rogue policemen criminal taxi bosses gang leaders and crooked politicians and businessmen Criminologist Mark Shaw examines a society in which contract killings have become commonplace looking at who arranges hits where to find a hitman and even what it is like to operate as a hitman or woman Since 1994 South Africa has seen a worrying increase in the commercialisation of murder and has been rocked by several high profile contract killings Drawing on his research of over a thousand incidents of hired assassinations from 2000 to 2016 Shaw reveals how these murders are used to exert a mafia type control over the country s legal and illegal economic activity Contracted assassinations and the organised criminal activity behind them contain sinister linkages with the underworld most visibly in relation to disputes over tenders and access to government resources State security actors increasingly mediate relations between the under and upper worlds with serious implications for the long term success of the post apartheid democratic project

De presidentiële jaren Nelson Mandela, Mandla Langa, 2017-10-19 De presidentiële jaren vertelt het uitzonderlijke verhaal van Mandela s presidentschap en laat zien welke moeilijkheden hij moest overwinnen om zijn droom voor Zuid Afrika te verwezenlijken In 1994 werd Nelson Mandela de eerste president van het democratische Zuid Afrika Tijdens zijn regeerperiode veranderde het land dat lang door kolonialisme en apartheid verdeeld was geweest in een functionerende democratie Het resultaat is een boek dat even uniek is als zijn hoofdpersoon levendig en gedreven Eerder verscheen Mandela s beroemde autobiografie De lange weg naar de vrijheid waarin hij zijn leven beschreef van jongeman tot het moment waarop hij als staatsman Zuid Afrika ging leiden De presidenti le jaren vertelt wat daarna kwam Mandela begon in zijn laatste periode als president al te werken aan dit boek maar kreeg het niet af Nu is die taak volbracht door Mandla Langa die toegang kreeg tot het onvoltooide manuscript en de archieven Mandela's weduwe Graa Machel schreef het voorwoord

Corruption Risks in Nigeria's Defence and Security Establishments Jude Uddoh Ph.D., 2016-02-05 This work attempts to assess corruption risks in five key areas of Nigeria's defence and security establishments namely political financial personnel operations and procurement Using a simple and straightforward question and answer format the assessment draws from interviews with key players in the industry as well as from secondary sources The scope of the work includes the last few years of President Goodluck Jonathan's administration and the threshold of the administration of President Muhammadu Buhari a truly epochal period in the history of Nigeria's fight against corruption but also reflects policy gaps inherent in the transition in government The work contributes to an area of literature which is both scanty and characterized by much secrecy It is hoped therefore that this contribution will not only stimulate more frank and open discussion on the subject of corruption risks in Nigeria's defence and security sector but would also act as both a template and benchmark on which policy makers can embark on genuine and meaningful reforms

Third International Conference of the South Asian Society of Criminology and Victimology (SASCV), 28-29, January 2016, Goa, India K. Jaishankar and Natti Ronel, 2016-01-28

Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauerma, 2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country's apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country's people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents' race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations

Policing and Boundaries in a Violent Society Guy Lamb, 2022-01-31 This book explores how social and territorial boundaries have influenced the approaches and practices of the South Africa Police Service SAPS By means of a historical analysis of South Africa this book introduces a new concept police frontierism which illuminates the nature of the relationships between the police policing and boundaries and can potentially be used for future case study research Drawing on a wealth of research this book examines how social and territorial boundaries strongly influenced police practices and behaviour in South Africa and how social delineations amplify and distort existing police prejudices against those communities on the other side of the boundary Focusing on cases of high density police operations public order policing and the recent policing of the COVID 19 lockdown this book argues that poor economic conditions combined with an increased militarisation of the SAPS and a decline in public trust in the police will result in boundaries continuing to fundamentally inform police work in South Africa This book will be of interest to scholars and students interested in policing in post colonial societies characterised by high levels of violence as well as police work and police militarization Strong NGOs and

Weak States Milli Lake,2018-05-31 Over the past decade the Democratic Republic of the Congo DR Congo and South Africa have attracted global attention for high rates of sexual and gender based violence Why is it that courts in eastern DR Congo prioritize gender crimes despite considerable logistical challenges while courts in South Africa home to a far stronger legal infrastructure and human rights record have struggled to provide justice to victims of similar crimes Lake shows that state fragility in DR Congo has created openings for human rights nongovernmental organizations NGOs to influence legal processes in ways that have proved impossible in countries like South Africa where the state is stronger Yet exploiting opportunities presented by state fragility to pursue narrow human rights goals invites a host of new challenges Strong NGOs and Weak States documents the promises and pitfalls of human rights and rule of law advocacy undertaken by NGOs in strong and weak states alike Twilight Policing Tessa G. Diphoorn,2015-10-20 South Africa boasts the largest private security sector in the entire world reflecting deep anxieties about violence security and governance Twilight Policing is an ethnographic study of the daily policing practices of armed response officers a specific type of private security officer and their interactions with citizens and the state police in Durban South Africa This book shows how their policing practices simultaneously undermine and support the state resulting in actions that are neither public nor private but something in between something twilight Their performances of security are also punitive disciplinary and exclusionary and they work to reinforce post apartheid racial and economic inequalities Ultimately Twilight Policing helps to illuminate how citizens survive volatile conditions and to whom they assign the authority to guide them in the process Handbook on Tourism

Gentrification Maria Gravari-Barbas,Sandra Guinand,2025-10-07 This insightful Handbook explores the relationship between tourism and gentrification focusing on the post COVID 19 era It examines the conceptual links between these two social phenomena outlining the spaces in which tourist gentrification has taken place and its consequences
