Sanc Ethos Bridging Past Papers:

Bridging Neoliberalism and Hindu Nationalism Marie Lall, Kusha Anand, 2022-09-30 India will soon be the world's most populated country and its political development will shape the world of the 21st century Yet Hindu nationalism at the helm of contemporary Indian politics is not well understood outside of India and its links to the global neoliberal trajectory have not been explored Covering 30 years of Indian politics this book shows for the first time the importance of education in propagating the acceptance of Hindu nationalism within a neoliberal system including the reframing of the concept of Indian citizenship The first five years of Modi rule failed to bring about the development that had been promised and have seen India's rapid change from a largely inclusive society to one where religious minorities are denied their basic rights Her Master's Tools? Caroline Vander Stichele, Todd C. Penner, 2005 This collection of essays originating in the SBL International Meetings in Berlin 2002 and Cambridge 2003 explores the current reception of historical criticism in feminist biblical studies pushing the boundaries of past study and opening new vistas for future research By framing the discussion in the context of the current reevaluation of both historical criticism and feminist exegesis the contributors highlight the ongoing need to engage methodological issues In addition a strong postcolonial emphasis throughout the volume challenges the hegemony of Western biblical interpretation promoting a format of dialogue and engagement The collection brings together diverse cultural and geographical perspectives on biblical criticism with over ten countries represented Consisting of Western and non Western perspectives female and male scholars junior and senior voices in the field and a range of feminist scholars situated alongside postcolonial and gender critics this collection reveals not only the multiplicity of perspectives but also the various transitions in scholarship that have taken place over the past thirty years Volume contributors include Roland Boer Athalya Brenner Ann Graham Brock Kristin De Troyer Esther Fuchs Archie Chi Chung Lee Joseph Marchal John Marshall Hjämil Mart nez Vázquez Madipoane Masenya ngwana Mphahlele Judith McKinlay Priscilla Geisterfer Nyvlt Jorunn kland Todd Penner Vernon Robbins Susanne Scholz Hanna Stenström and Caroline Vander Stichele Paperback edition is available from the Society of Biblical Literature www.sbl-site.org An Archaeology of Australia Since 1788 Susan Lawrence, Peter Davies, 2010-10-21 This volume provides an important new synthesis of archaeological work carried out in Australia on the post contact period It draws on dozens of case studies from a wide geographical and temporal span to explore the daily life of Australians in settings such as convict stations goldfields whalers camps farms pastoral estates and urban neighbourhoods The different conditions experienced by various groups of people are described in detail including rich and poor convicts and their superiors Aboriginal people women children and migrant groups The social themes of gender class ethnicity status and identity inform every chapter demonstrating that these are vital parts of human experience and cannot be separated from archaeologies of industry urbanization and culture contact The book engages with a wide range of contemporary discussions and debates within Australian history and the international discipline of historical archaeology The colonization of Australia was part of the international expansion of European hegemony in the eighteenth and nineteenth century The material discussed here is thus fundamentally part of the global processes of colonization and the creation of settler societies the industrial revolution the development of mass consumer culture and the emergence of national identities Drawing out these themes and integrating them with the analysis of archaeological materials highlights the vital relevance of archaeology in modern society

Engineering the Eternal City Pamela O. Long, 2018-11-20 Between the catastrophic flood of the Tiber River in 1557 and the death of the engineering pope Sixtus V in 1590 the city of Rome was transformed by intense activity involving building construction and engineering projects of all kinds Using hundreds of archival documents and primary sources Engineering the Eternal City explores the processes and people involved in these infrastructure projects sewers bridge repair flood prevention aqueduct construction the building of new straight streets and even the relocation of immensely heavy ancient Egyptian obelisks that Roman emperors had carried to the city centuries before This portrait of an early modern Rome examines the many conflicts failures and successes that shaped the city as decision makers tried to control not only Rome's structures and infrastructures but also the people who lived there Taking up visual images of the city created during the same period most importantly in maps and urban representations this book shows how in a time before the development of modern professionalism and modern bureaucracies there was far more wide ranging conversation among people of various backgrounds on issues of engineering and infrastructure than there is in our own times Physicians civic leaders jurists cardinals popes and clerics engaged with painters sculptors architects printers and other practitioners as they discussed argued and completed the projects that remade Rome

Civil-Military Cooperation in International Interventions Agata Mazurkiewicz, 2022-03-31 This book investigates the challenges related to civil military cooperation CIMIC and offers a new perspective by examining the social role of NATO CIMIC soldiers The intertwining of the civilian and military spheres has become a significant part of the contemporary security environment However the relationship between the military and civilian actors is often troubled filled with misunderstandings and rivalry In their duty to provide a link between the military and diverse civilian environment soldiers involved in CIMIC are exposed to varied often conflicted expectations that make up their social role and put stress on their performance and the effectiveness of CIMIC By drawing on analysis of NATO CIMIC documents and a series of interviews with CIMIC soldiers the author is able to first identify the elements of the CIMIC role and second diagnose the inherent role conflict and describe methods of dealing with it Looking at civil military cooperation through this lens reveals new layers of challenges that impact its effectiveness and a better way to understand the complexity of civil military interaction This book will be of much interest to students of military studies military sociology peacekeeping security studies and international relations as well as military practitioners
