Questions and Replies of the National Council of Provinces South Africa. Parliament (1994-). National Council of Provinces,1998 State of the Nation Sakhela Buhlungu,2007 State of the Nation South Africa 2007 offers 22 diverse angles on contemporary South Africa in one compelling and comprehensive collection The politics section focuses on the outcome of the 2006 local government elections and issues of service delivery The economy section examines the rapidly growing social welfare net the state of our public health systems and the topics of water and the environment heritage and tourism Violence against women prison reform the plight of South Africa's former guerrilla fighters transformation in South African rugby and the post apartheid role of the church all come under the spotlight in the society section The volume concludes with a look at trends in the continuing involvement of South African business on the African continent South Africa's part in the complex search for peace and stability in the Democratic Republic of Congo and the life of the vast Zimbabwean exile community in South Africa Policing and Crime Control in Post-apartheid South Africa Anne-Marie Singh,2016-04-22 Once a marginal political issue crime control now occupies a central place on the social political and economic agenda of contemporary liberal democracies Nowhere more so than in post apartheid South Africa where the transition from apartheid rule to democratic rule was marked by a shift in concern from political to criminal violence In this book Anne Marie Singh offers a comprehensive account of policing transformations in post apartheid South Africa Her analysis of crime and mechanisms for its control is linked to an analysis of neo liberal policies providing the basis for a critique of existing analyses of liberal democratic governance Themes addressed in the book include the exercise of coercive authority state and non state expertise in policing the rationally choosing criminal and the importance of developing an active and responsible citizenship

Civilian Oversight of Policing Andrew Goldsmith,Colleen Lewis,2000-10-22 As the issue of police conduct in both industrialized and non industrialized countries has reached several international agendas contributors from the social sciences justice and human rights examine recent experiences with and prospects for civilian oversight and how the relatively new method of accountability has been interpreted and implemented in a wide range of jurisdictions around the world Distributed in the US by ISBS c Book News Inc Questions and Replies of the National Assembly South Africa. Parliament (1994-). National Assembly,2002 This Week in South Africa ,1995 We Are the Poors Ashwin Desai,2002-04 When Nelson Mandela was elected president of South Africa in 1994 freedom loving people around the world hailed a victory over racial domination injustice and inequality The end of apartheid did not change the basic conditions of life for the majority of oppressed South Africans however Material inequality has deepened and new forms of resistance have emerged in communities that have discovered a common oppression and solidarity and forged new and dynamic political identities Desai's book follows the growth of the most unexpected of these community movements describing from the inside the process through which the downtrodden regain their dignity and defend the most basic conditions of life His book begins with one specific community with local government enforcing cut offs of water and electricity and evicting families from their houses whose breadwinners have lost their jobs As the Chatsworth community begins to organize and discover leaders among its ranks so their example spreads to other communities in Durban and the KwaZulu Natal region and their struggles build links with those in other parts of the new South Africa We Are the Poors was a major event in the life of the South African Left when the first edition was published there in 2000 This new edition follows the ongoing course of events to the present

Policing and Boundaries in a Violent Society Guy Lamb, 2022-01-31 This book explores how social and territorial boundaries have influenced the approaches and practices of the South Africa Police Service SAPS By means of a historical analysis of South Africa this book introduces a new concept police frontierism which illuminates the nature of the relationships between the police policing and boundaries and can potentially be used for future case study research Drawing on a wealth of research this book examines how social and territorial boundaries strongly influenced police practices and behaviour in South Africa and how social delineations amplify and distort existing police prejudices against those communities on the other side of the boundary Focusing on cases of high density police operations public order policing and the recent policing of the COVID 19 lockdown this book argues that poor economic conditions combined with an increased militarisation of the SAPS and a decline in public trust in the police will result in boundaries continuing to fundamentally inform police work in South Africa This book will be of interest to scholars and students interested in policing in post colonial societies characterised by high levels of violence as well as police work and police militarization
