Meditation On A Prisoner Towards Understanding Action And Mind:

Dynamics in Action Alicia Juarrero, 2002-01-25 What is the difference between a wink and a blink The answer is important not only to philosophers of mind for significant moral and legal consequences rest on the distinction between voluntary and involuntary behavior However action theory the branch of philosophy that has traditionally articulated the boundaries between action and non action and between voluntary and involuntary behavior has been unable to account for the difference Alicia Juarrero argues that a mistaken 350 year old model of cause and explanation one that takes all causes to be of the push pull efficient cause sort and all explanation to be prooflike underlies contemporary theories of action Juarrero then proposes a new framework for conceptualizing causes based on complex adaptive systems Thinking of causes as dynamical constraints makes bottom up and top down causal relations including those involving intentional causes suddenly tractable A different logic for explaining actions as historical narrative not inference follows if one adopts this novel approach to long standing questions of action and responsibility

Meditation on a Prisoner Edward Pols, 1975 In this brilliant analysis of mind body problems Edward Pols adds new dimensions to the discussion of basic issues The prisoner is Socrates who in a series of actions involving moral decisions finds himself under sentence of death and who has now decided to undergo the sentence rather than accept the opportunity to escape provided by powerful friends Pols takes as his point of departure Socrates' statement of the contrast between a scientific analysis of a moral action and the point of view taken by the agent himself and his rejection of the adequacy of the scientific analysis

Hegel's Philosophy of Spirit Peter G. Stillman, 1987-01-01 This book focuses on Hegel's philosophy of spirit his major concept and the core of his mature system It does not so much define Geist as it does illustrate its many forms and manifestations It is a broad ranging examination of Volume III of Hegel's Encyclopedia delineating his radical break with previous philosophy and illuminating the heart of his thought Several themes recur the meaning and content of recognition and intersubjectivity religion Hegel's predecessors and his contemporary successors or contrasts Hegel's intentions and his audacity are made both clear and sharp in this work

Biomusicology Nils Lennart Wallin, 1991 Wallin's discourse encompasses 1 the musical consequences of cerebral functional asymmetry 2 the hierarchic and selective organization of perceptual cognitive auditory processes 3 reticular limbic responses to musical stimuli interpreted as synapse modifying mechanisms for long term motivation and learning as well as for phylogenetical learning 4 the question of remnants or retentions with roots in the sound gestures of other vertebrates of a higher order and not solely the non human primates being active in the innermost structure of music 5 vocalization techniques e.g. the Kolning technique of the late Paleolithic herding culture of Europe as paleobiological retention 6 the epistemological perspective of models of life processes as discussed in recent scientific research

The Mystery and Agency of God Frank G. Kirkpatrick, 2014-02-01 There are two philosophical commitments requisite to Christian belief that God is the ultimate mystery and that God is present and active in the world Attempting to avoid the trappings of a radical distantiation and the immanent collapse of God and world Frank Kirkpatrick argues for a theory of agency and action that preserves the mystery of God while providing a philosophically robust account of divine action in created time and space Kirkpatrick proposes a way around the stalemates that have stymied thought on divine agency and enters into conversation with significant figures in systematic theology Reenchantment without Supernaturalism David Ray Griffin, 2018-08-06

The process philosophy of Alfred North Whitehead and Charles Hartshorne has made many distinctive contributions to the philosophy of religion David Ray Griffin now offers the first full scale philosophy of religion written from this perspective discussing such topics as the relationship between science and religion the validity of religious experience the nature and existence of God religious pluralism creation and evolution and the problem of evil Griffin's clear and comprehensive book also serves as a valuable introduction to process philosophy itself In his vigorous defense of a worldview that is fully naturalistic and fully religious Griffin shows not only how this position reconciles naturalism with freedom genuine religious experience and even life after death but also how its naturalistic theism reenchants the world in the sense of providing cosmic support for moral values Highly original and sometimes controversial Griffin's book develops its stance in conversation with influential proponents of other philosophical positions including William P Alston Jürgen Habermas John Hick Colin McGinn Alvin Plantinga Hilary Putnam Willard Quine Ninian Smart Jeffrey Stout and Bernard Williams The Rehabilitation of Whitehead George R. Lucas Jr., 1989-10-15 Lucas treats Whitehead within the framework of major themes in current Anglo American analytic philosophy viewed against the backdrop of significant historical trends in European and American thought since the Enlightenment This most misunderstood of twentieth century philosophers is critically interpreted here Whitehead had developed 50 years ago some ideas only now emerging in analytic philosophy Lucas examines the significance of Whitehead's thought for current epistemology of science for the anti foundationalism debate and more generally for modal logic action theory philosophical psychology and the philosophy of mind He shows how some recent analytic philosophy is now developing ideas concerning language personal identity and other topics that are found in Whitehead Lucas concludes with recent problems in relativity theory and quantum mechanics indicating how these bear on the philosophy of science and on the task of forging a comprehensive understanding of nature He examines the debates concerning Einstein and Whitehead on relativity and analyzes the work of Bohm Prigogine and others who have found Whitehead's categories useful for their own success Whitehead is shown to be a historical figure of great importance not an idiosyncratic thinker isolated along with a few enthusiastic followers from the mainstream of contemporary philosophy With Russell Whitehead participated in the same philosophical world that gave rise to analytic philosophy Together Bound Frank G. Kirkpatrick, 1994-01-06 Challenging the assumption that the concept of divine action is necessarily paradoxical on the grounds that God is radically transcendent of finitude or can perform only a master act of creating and sustaining the universe Frank Kirkpatrick defends as philosophically credible the Christian conviction that God is a personal Agent who also acts in particular historical moments to further the divine intention of fostering universal community Kirkpatrick claims that God and the world are distinct realities together bound in a mutual relationship of reciprocal historical action In this relationship God both acts upon and responds to human beings in specific moments in their history The implications of this claim for understanding the biblical narrative the problem of evil cosmological theories and the realism of Christian community are pursued

German Idealism's Trinitarian Legacy Dale M. Schlitt, 2016-10-20 Dale M Schlitt presents a study of trinitarian thought as it was understood and debated by the German Idealists broadly engaging Schelling's philosophical interpretations of Trinity as well as Hegel's and analyzing how these Idealist interpretations influenced later philosophers and theologians Divided into different sections one considers nineteenth century central Europeans Philipp Marheineke Isaak August Dorner and Vladimir Sergeyevich Solovyov under the rubric testimonials Another section studies twentieth century Germans Karl Barth Karl Rahner and Wolfhart Pannenberg who share family resemblances with the Idealists and a third addresses the work of twentieth and twenty first century Americans Robert W Jenson Catherine Mowry LaCugna Joseph A Bracken and Schlitt himself whose work reverberates with what Schlitt terms transatlantic Idealist echoes The book concludes with reflection on the overall German Idealist trinitarian legacy noting several challenges it offers to those who will pursue creative trinitarian reflection in the future
