Reading Paul Through the Eyes of Disability David W. Anderson, 2021-08-17 Discover a biblical approach to welcome individuals and families affected by disability as equal and vital members of the fellowship by reading Paul from a new perspective David W Anderson the founder and president of Crossing Bridges Inc a nonprofit ministry follows up on his previous books on how the church can serve those with disabilities in this analysis of what the Bible says on the topic The emphasis is on practical everyday implications of theology to life experiences and relationships The author explores topics such as actions we can take to lend credibility to our Christian witness such as focusing on compassion hospitality and Christlike character steps we can take to help individuals and families dealing with disability avoid feeling spiritually isolated Paul does not directly teach about disability but his writing highlights how Christians should relate to others with acceptance love humility patience and equality Thinking theologically about disability includes seeking to understand the place and purpose of disability in general and how to minister with persons and families facing a disabling condition Scarred Faith Josh Ross, 2013-05-07 Are you scarred Tired of platitudes that don't heal your brokenness Have you wondered if you're allowed to say things like God this doesn't make any sense Where are you Are you looking for the balance between honesty and faithfulness This book is for you Josh Ross lets you in on his own journey of grief as he discovers that faith is about experience movement and process Publisher's description Toward a Theology of Special Education David W. Anderson, 2012-10-31 Professor mentor author disability advocate seminar leader around the world Dr David Anderson corralled his many talents and worldwide experiences to author this important book The volume should prove invaluable to Christians concerned about disabilities especially teachers Without flinching Dr Anderson tackles the tough issues How could a good and benevolent God permit disabled children Are disabilities the result of sin How does a Christian teacher of the disabled differ from secular counterparts Especially helpful is his emphasis on the reflective teacher integrating faith and learning Certainly this is a volume that belongs on the bookshelves of anyone concerned with disabilities Steven A Kaatz PhD Graduate Programs in Special Education Bethel University St Paul Minnesota I have had the privilege of traveling with Dr Anderson as he has taught the concepts addressed in this book to educators pastors and parents in a variety of countries I've seen the material come alive as leaders discover the importance of thinking Christianly about disability This book has the potential of impacting all readers in similar ways Dr Anderson challenges all of us to come to grips with a biblical worldview and then to live it out within our spheres of influence Toward a Theology of Special Education thus encourages all readers to think Christianly about disability Such thinking will then motivate us to care with God's care and to serve with God's concern for justice and compassion Dr Richard Schoenert pastor emeritus Calvary Church Roseville Minnesota The Living Pulpit Mary Alice Mulligan, 2018-04-10 Fifty years of preaching excellence in one volume The Living Pulpit collects sermons from representative preachers in the Stone Campbell Movement pastors affiliated with the Churches of Christ the Christian

Churches of Christ and the Christian Church Disciples of Christ over the past 50 years The fourth volume in a series that began in 1868 this collection of sermons from 40 ministers reviewed by a diverse team of scholars captures the theological themes and changing approaches to preaching across the Movement's three streams Emerging from an era of mutual suspicion the three streams have developed a better understanding shared mutuality and respect for each stream's unique qualities and cooperated in many venues qualities reflected in this collection The Living Pulpit 2018 helps preachers and scholars recognize where preaching has been and why it has been there in each stream and where preaching appears to be going in a new mission field for Christianity and the Unity Movement General Editor Mary Alice Mulligan Contributing Editors Ronald Allen Dave Bland David Fleer Joseph Grana II Tim Sensing Bruce Shields Casey Sigmon Richard Voelz Contributors Jimmy Allen Lynn Anderson Gene Appel Dean Barham Batsell Barrett Baxter Russell Blowers Laura Buffington Delores Carpenter Janet Casey Allen Mike Cope Fred Craddock Lisa Davison Glenn Elliott Mark Frost Joseph Grana II Andrew Hairston Cynthia Hale Allen Harris Jodi Hickerson Cal Jernigan Sandhya Jha David Kagiwada Michael Kinnamon Roy Lawson Marshall Leggett Jim McGuiggan Bob Mink Jos Morales Ronald Osborn Derek Penwell Norman Reed Mary Louise Rowand Rob Russell Landon B Saunders Mark Scott Tim Sensing Bob Shannon Rubel Shelly Bruce Shields Casey Sigmon Myron Taylor Samuel Twumasi Ankrah Richard Voelz Paul Watson J S Winston

Reaching out and Bringing In David W Anderson, 2013-04-17 Reaching Out and Bringing In is designed to help pastors and church leaders develop a biblical perspective on disability and the church's role in ministering to individuals and families affected by disability a must read for those who minister to and with persons with disabilities and even as a Bible study for all Christians Dana Croxton founder of Enable Ministries Dr Anderson's book challenges the church community to reach out to people and families affected by disability and to consider ways the church can minister to and with people with disabilities The book includes insightful and relevant questions at the end of each chapter making it perfect for reading and discussion by church staff church boards and in small group or Sunday school settings Brian Funk area director Joni and Friends Eastern Pennsylvania Lancaster Dr Anderson sounds a wakeup call to the church The book's call for personal heart change is coupled with a challenge to the church to greater action and intentional outreach Vonn Dornbush DMin pastor of missions and outreach Calvary Church Roseville Minnesota

Remedies for Sorrow Megan Nix, 2023-04-18 This compulsively readable memoir brings to light an issue that has been too long ignored An immensely important book Emily Oster New York Times bestselling author of Expecting Better and Cribsheet A story of a mother's fierce love for her exceptional child and her courageous journey to break the silence about a hidden risk to pregnant women both a beautiful family story and an urgent call to action A moving potentially life altering book Robert Kolker author of 1 New York Times bestseller Hidden Valley Road After a seemingly uneventful pregnancy Megan Nix's second daughter Anna was born very small and profoundly deaf Megan and her husband Luke learned that Anna could have lifelong delays due to an infection from a virus they had never heard of cytomegalovirus or CMV which Megan had unwittingly contracted from her toddler during pregnancy Megan was electrified by this knowledge She had been warned while pregnant about the risks of saunas sushi and unpasteurized cheese a lack of folic acid and an excess of kitty litter She knew to fear a slew of genetic syndromes she could do little to prevent But she had not been told that CMV is contagious in the saliva of one out of three toddlers spread through a kiss a shared cup a bite of unfinished toast She had not been told that the stakes were high that congenital CMV causes more birth defects and childhood disabilities including blindness deafness cerebral palsy epilepsy and autism than any infectious disease Or that some of these disabilities are evident at birth but others appear suddenly at age two or three and are never traced back to congenital CMV Remedies for Sorrow unfolds across the dramatic landscape of Sitka Alaska where Luke makes his living as a salmon fisherman There Megan struggles to meet Anna's needs and dives deeper into the mystery of why no one not her OBGYN not her toddler's pediatrician had mentioned CMV despite the staggering cost of this silence to families and children like Anna From this rugged and beautiful place comes a memoir about the boundless capacity of mothers the extraordinary child that is Anna and the lifesaving power of truth Exceptional Lives Ann P. Turnbull, 2002 For introductory courses in Special Education The authors of this introductory text have a vision for special education to equip general and special education teachers with the principles values and teaching practices that support the education of the majority of students with disabilities in general education programs Beginning with a thorough review of the principles that undergird IDEA and the process of nondiscriminatory evaluation the authors explore the teaching and collaborative processes necessary for implementing best practices and Individuals with Disabilities Education Act of 1997 Using a categorical approach the authors highlight real students with real disabilities and use their stories as a vehicle for describing the characteristics causes and challenges that people with exceptionalities face and that both general and special education teachers must consider when making decisions about how where and what to teach Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1996-06
