Meditations On The Monk Who Dwells In Daily Life:

Meditations Thomas Moore,1994 Sometimes in their chanting monks will land upon a note and sing it in florid fashion one syllable of text for fifty notes of chant Melisma they call it Living a melismatic life in imitation of plainchant we may stop on an experience a place a person or a memory and rhapsodize in imagination Some like to meditate or contemplate melismatically while others prefer to draw build paint or dance whatever their eye has fallen upon Living one point after another is one form of experience and it can be emphatically productive But stopping for melisma gives the soul its reason for being BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Meditations for Mediocre Mystics Tom Stella,2023-01-27 The term mediocre mystics seems a fitting way to refer to those who yearn for the nameless but do not qualify as full blown mystics I realize that because there is nothing middling about mystics mediocre mystics may appear to be an oxymoron but the root meaning of mediocre is not second rate From the Latin mediocris the word means moderate or ordinary and has been used figuratively to refer to one who is halfway up a mountain Unlike ordinary folks sainted mystics have reached the mountaintop they are on a first name basis with the nameless But just because we haven't arrived at the heights just because our lives unfold in the valley of ordinary everyday life doesn't mean that we cannot or do not experience the desire that has fueled the mystic's climb All my life my heart has yearned for a thing I cannot name Andre Breton All my life I have experienced the yearning to which French writer and poet Andr Breton refers For me that yearning is composed in part of a subtle discontent a quiet feeling that something is missing despite the fact that nothing is missing Significant relationships meaningful work as well as material and monetary security have never been enough to satisfy the desire for that which I cannot name I know I'm not alone in my discontent or my longing for the nameless for mystics of every spiritual and religious tradition have spoken of their desire for and experience of union with a spiritual entity that is as real as it is surreal I am not claiming that just because I share their yearning I consider myself a mystic but neither do I believe that the term mystic is entirely inappropriate for those of us who might glimpse briefly what certified or canonized mystics have been blinded by Monks in the World William Thiele,2014-02-03 In this moving spiritual memoir Dr William Thiele shares inspiring stories of the birthing of a monastery without walls among everyday women and men around New Orleans after the devastation of Hurricane Katrina in 2005 Along the way core contemplative attitudes practices and principles were discovered He offers these stories of birthing a School for Contemplative Living as a challenging call to a frantic and polarized world Readers will be drawn toward their own spiritual transformation as they encounter imperfect monks with messy lives who are practicing God's presence and learning to serve the world from that presence He encourages readers to join these monks in the world by forming contemplative communities who radiate loving kindness as their first priority The Tao of Contemplation Jasmin Lee Cori,2000-01-01 Cori presents a new look at the concept of relaxation and handling stress as she provides exercises that teach how to drop into silence let go of control live in the present and allow actions to come from a deeper source The Artist's Rule Christine Valters Paintner,2011-07-11 Christine Valters Paintner author of Water Wind Earth and Fire invites readers to discover and develop their creative gifts in a spirit of prayer and reflection This twelve week course draws on the insights and practices of Benedictine spirituality to explore the interplay between contemplation and creativity Summarized in the phrase pray and work The Rule of St Benedict provides the inspiration for Christine Valters Paintner s newest exploration of the mutually nourishing relationship between contemplative practices and creative expression Artists of all stripes and stations in life poets or painters potters or photographers will discover how traditions of Benedictine Celtic and desert spirituality can offer new sources of inspiration for their work Through this twelve week course themes like Sacred Tools and Sacred Space Creative Solitude and Community and Nature as a Source of Revelation and Inspiration are enriched by Paintner s perceptive discussion and enhanced by insightful quotations from well known artists and writers Each week offers suggestions for grounding both the creative and the spiritual life through three basic practices walking lectio divina and journaling In sync with Paintner s vibrant Internet presence The Artist s Rule is supplemented with online resources including guided meditation podcasts video lessons and discussions A Companion to the Works of Rainer Maria Rilke Erika Alma Metzger,Michael M.
