Scholars in COVID Times Melissa Castillo Planas, Debra A. Castillo, 2023-09-15 Scholars in COVID Times documents the new and innovative forms of scholarship community collaboration and teaching brought about by the COVID 19 pandemic In this volume Melissa Castillo Planas and Debra A Castillo bring together a diverse range of texts from research based studies to self reflective essays to reexamine what it means to be a publicly engaged scholar in the era of COVID Between social distancing masking and remote teaching along with the devastating physical and emotional tolls on individuals and families the disruption of COVID 19 in academia has given motivated scholars an opportunity or necessitated them to reconsider how they interact with and inspire students conduct research and continue collaborative projects Addressing a broad range of factors from anti Asian racism to pedagogies of resilience and escapism digital pen pals to international performance the essays are connected by a flexible creative approach to community engagement as a core aspect of research and teaching Timely and urgent but with long term implications and applications Scholars in COVID Times offers a heterogeneous vision of scholarly and pedagogical innovation in an era of contestation and crisis

The Classroom and the Crowd Al Filreis, 2025-11-25 For more than a decade Al Filreis has taught a free online course about experimental poetry known as ModPo that has drawn some 435 000 students from 179 countries Online classes even a fraction of ModPo's size have been criticized as impersonal and unengaging But the citizens of ModPo have formed a generous and enduring intellectual community as together they read poems typically dismissed as difficult and inaccessible In The Classroom and the Crowd Filreis reflects on his decades of experience as a founder of participatory literary communities and teacher of online courses demonstrating that student centered education offers new possibilities for humane social networking Introducing readers to ModPo participants and their open ended round the clock conversations he shows how online learning can not only be accessible and educational but also deepen our commitment to democracy Filreis argues that the emphasis on collaborative learning space for discussion and the inherent openness of poetry allows for a sense of community continuity and even intimacy that often eludes other online educational endeavors ModPo embodies principles underlying both modern poetics and cooperative education Writers and readers like teachers and learners create meaning together many voices are clearer than one and democracy is a creative practice Proposing an optimistic vision of mass learning this book contends that asynchronous education has surprising advantages over the traditional classroom that panics about a crisis of attention and the death of reading are overblown and that instead of logging off we should all start reading with a crowd Leadership
