Drama and Curriculum John O'Toole, Madonna Stinson, Tiina Moore, 2009-03-17 Here s a knocking indeed says the Porter in Shakespeare s Scottish play Act II Scene 3 and immediately puts himself into role in order to deal with the demands of such an early call after a late night of drinking and carousal If a man were porter of hell gate But what roles does the porter of curriculum gate take on in order to deal with drama s persistent demands for entry Ah that depends upon the temperature of the times We who have been knocking for what seems to be a very long time know well that when evaluation and measurement criteria are demanded as evidence of drama s efficacy an examiner stands as gatekeeper When the educational landscape is in danger of overcrowding we meet a territorial governor And how often has the courtesan turned out to be only a tease because the arts are for a brief moment in the spotlight for their abilities to foster out of the box thinkers In this text we meet these commissionaires and many more The gatekeeping roles and what they represent are so familiar that they have become cliches to us We know them by their arguments ripostes dismissals their brief encouragement and lack of follow up And we know that behind each one however firmly they think they keep the keys is a nancial and political master whose power controls the curriculum building and everything in it
