Prisoner Without A Name Cell Without A Number The Americas:

Prisoner Without a Name, Cell Without a Number Jacobo Timerman, 2002 An Argentine newspaper publisher who dared to criticize his government's policy of cruel repression tells the story of his arrest imprisonment and torture The Jewish Diaspora in Latin America and the Caribbean Kristin Ruggiero, 2010-04-07 Provides a view of Jewish experiences through history literature painting anthropology poetry sociology and politics This title explores and celebrates what it means to have and live memories of an individual and a collective Jewishness and reveals the historical fragments of the Jewish experience in Latin America and the Caribbean Encyclopedia of Contemporary Latin American and Caribbean Cultures Daniel Balderston, Mike Gonzalez, Ana M. Lopez, 2000-12-07 This vast three volume Encyclopedia offers more than 4000 entries on all aspects of the dynamic and exciting contemporary cultures of Latin America and the Caribbean Its coverage is unparalleled with more than 40 regions discussed and a time span of 1920 to the present day Culture is broadly defined to include food sport religion television transport alongside architecture dance film literature music and sculpture The international team of contributors include many who are based in Latin America and the Caribbean making this the most essential authoritative and authentic Encyclopedia for anyone studying Latin American and Caribbean studies Key features include over 4000 entries ranging from extensive overview entries which provide context for general issues to shorter factual or biographical pieces articles followed by bibliographic references which offer a starting point for further research extensive cross referencing and thematic and regional contents lists direct users to relevant articles and help map a route through the entries a comprehensive index provides further guidance A Global History of Convicts and Penal Colonies Clare Anderson, 2018-05-17 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by the University of Leicester Between 1415 when the Portuguese first used convicts for colonization purposes in the North African enclave of Ceuta to the 1960s and the dissolution of Stalin's gulags global powers including the Spanish Dutch Portuguese British Russians Chinese and Japanese transported millions of convicts to forts penal settlements and penal colonies all over the world A Global History of Convicts and Penal Colonies builds on specific regional archives and literatures to write the first global history of penal transportation The essays explore the idea of penal transportation as an engine of global change in which political repression and forced labour combined to produce long term impacts on economy society and identity They investigate the varied and interconnected routes convicts took to penal sites across the world and the relationship of these convict flows to other forms of punishment unfree labour military service and indigenous incarceration They also explore the lived worlds of convicts including work culture religion and intimacy and convict experience and agency Human Rights in Latin America Sonia Cardenas, 2012-06-29 For the last half century Latin America has been plagued by civil wars dictatorships torture legacies of colonialism and racism and other evils The region has also experienced dramatic if uneven human rights improvements The accounts of how Latin America's people have dealt with the persistent threats to their fundamental rights offer lessons for people around the world Human Rights in Latin America A Politics of Terror and Hope is the first textbook to provide a comprehensive introduction to the human rights issues facing an area that constitutes more than half of the Western Hemisphere Leading human rights researcher and educator Sonia Cardenas brings together regional examples of both terror and hope emphasizing the dualities inherent in human rights struggles Organized by three pivotal topics human rights violations reform and accountability this book offers an authoritative synthesis of research on human rights on the continent From historical accounts of abuse to successful transnational campaigns and legal battles Human Rights in Latin America explores the tensions underlying a vast range of human rights initiatives In addition to surveying the roles of the United States relatives of the disappeared and truth commissions Cardenas covers newer ground in addressing the colonial and ideological underpinnings of human rights abuses emerging campaigns for disability and sexuality rights and regional dynamics relating to the International Criminal Court Engagingly written and fully illustrated Human Rights in Latin America creates an important niche among human rights and Latin American textbooks Ample supplementary resources including discussion questions interdisciplinary reading lists filmographies online resources internship opportunities and instructor assignments make this an especially valuable text for use in human rights courses Prison Writing of Latin America Joey

Whitfield, 2018-07-26 What happens inside Latin American prisons How does the social organisation of prisoners relate to the political structures beyond the walls Is it possible to resist corrupt penal regimes In Prison Writing of Latin America Joey Whitfield turns to those best placed to answer these questions people who have been imprisoned themselves Drawing on a century of material produced by Latin American prisoners from Mexico Cuba Costa Rica Colombia Peru Bolivia and Brazil Whitfield weaves readings of novels memoirs and testimonial texts with social and political analysis Rather than distinguishing between dictatorial and democratic periods of government he shows that from the point of view of the prisoner all states are authoritarian in nature In the face of oppression however prisoners both political and criminal have found ways not only to resist but also to create alternative communities both real and imagined sometimes in collaboration with each other The AIDS Pandemic in Latin America Shawn C. Smallman, 2012-09-01 Of the more than 40 million people around the world currently living with HIV AIDS two million live in Latin America and the Caribbean In an engaging chronicle illuminated by his travels in the region Shawn Smallman shows how the varying histories and cultures of the nations of Latin America have influenced the course of the pandemic He demonstrates that a disease spread in an intimate manner is profoundly shaped by impersonal forces In Latin America Smallman explains the AIDS pandemic has fractured into a series of subepidemics driven by different factors in each country Examining cultural issues and public policies at the country regional and global levels he discusses why HIV has had such a heavy impact on Honduras for instance while leaving the neighboring state of Nicaragua relatively untouched and why Latin America as a whole has kept infection rates lower than other global regions such as Africa and Asia Smallman draws on the most recent scientific research as well as his own interviews with AIDS educators gay leaders drug traffickers crack addicts transvestites and doctors in Cuba Brazil and Mexico Highlighting the realities of gender race sexuality poverty politics and international relations throughout Latin America and the Caribbean Smallman brings a fresh perspective to understanding the cultures of the region as well as the global AIDS crisis

Subalternities in India and Latin America Sonya Surabhi Gupta, 2021-07-15 This volume presents a comparative exploration of Dalit autobiographical writing from India and of Latin American testimonio as subaltern voices from two regions of the Global South Offering frames for linking global subalternity today the chapters address Siddalingaiah s Ooru Keri Muli s Life History Manoranjan Byapari and Manju Bala s narratives and Yashica Dutt s Coming Out as Dalit among others alongside foundational texts of the testimonio genre While embedded in their specific experiences the shared history of oppression and resistance on the basis of race ethnicity and caste from where these subaltern life histories arise constitutes an alternative epistemological locus The chapters point to the inadequacy of reading them within existing critical frameworks in autobiography studies A fascinating set of studies juxtaposing the two genres the book is an essential read for scholars and researchers of Dalit studies subaltern studies testimonio and autobiography cultural studies world literature comparative literature history political sociology and social anthropology arts and aesthetics Latin American studies and Global South studies
