Prix Rome 2015 Visual English:

U.S. Government Research & Development Reports, 1966-11 The Classical Outlook, 1959 Digital Draw
Connections Fabio Bianconi, Marco Filippucci, 2021-04-27 This book stems from the seminal work of Robert Venturi and aims at re projecting it in the current cultural debate by extending it to the scale of landscape and placing it in connection with representative issues It brings out the transdisciplinary synthesis of a necessarily interdisciplinary approach to the theme aimed at creating new models which are able to represent the complexity of a contradictory reality and to redefine the centrality of human dimension As such the volume gathers multiple experiences developed in different geographical areas which come into connection with the role of representation Composed of 43 chapters written by 81 authors from around the world with an introduction by Jim Venturi and Cezar Nicolescu the volume is divided into two parts the first one more theoretical and the other one which showcases real world applications although there is never a total split between criticism and operational experimentation of research Research in Education, 1972 Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals. 2d Ed., Rev. and Enl Avery Library, 1995 The 1950s Richard Alan Schwartz, 2014-05-14 Traces the history of the United States during the 1950s through such primary sources as memoirs letters contemporary journalism and official documents Journal of Education and School World, 1896 Resources in Education, 2000-10 Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle, 1853 Gender Trouble and Current Archaeological Debates Uroš Matić, Bissarka Gaydarska, Laura Coltofean, Marta Díaz-Guardamino, 2024-10-28 This volume challenges the status quo by addressing a selection of intensely discussed themes in contemporary archaeological practice from a gender perspective It aims to demonstrate that gender is intrinsic to archaeology and that gender archaeology can enrich our studies irrespective of the discipline s possible future directions and so called paradigm shifts The scholarly contributions commissioned for this volume critically discuss and reflect on a wide range of concepts ideas principles and theories presently applied in archaeology within the framework of gender The chapters included in the first part deal with themes in world archaeology that have little or no focus on gender such as the Third Science Revolution e g ancient DNA stable isotopes analyses big data posthumanism e g new materialism symmetrical archaeology and the ontological turn and digital archaeology and heritage The second part focuses on themes in which gender archaeology has made serious advances intersectionality social inequality violence mobility The third part deals with themes crucial for contemporary archaeology and society namely gender education gender representation in museum exhibitions and the future of gender archaeology The volume concludes with a coda chapter that critically assesses the preceding contributions and the volume as a whole The book offers a gender balanced and inclusive authorship consisting of both well established and early career researchers closely connected to the EAA whose professionally culturally and geographically diverse backgrounds and experiences enrich the viewpoints discussed in the chapters The targeted audience is archaeologists from all theoretical and scientific backgrounds at all stages of their career Chapter 2 Sex Gender
