Rethinking The American City An International Dialogue Architecture Technology Culture:

Rethinking the American City Miles Orvell, Klaus Benesch, Dolores Hayden, 2014 Whether struggling in the wake of postindustrial decay or reinventing themselves with new technologies and populations cities have once again moved to the center of intellectual and political concern Rethinking the American City brings together leading scholars from a range of disciplines to examine an array of topics that illuminate the past present and future of cities Rethinking the American City offers a lively and fascinating survey of contemporary thinking about cities in a transnational context Utilizing an innovative format each chapter opens with an iconic image and includes a brief and provocative essay on a single topic followed by an extended dialogue among all the essayists Topics range from energy use design and digital media to transportation systems and housing to public art urban ruins and futurist visions By engaging with key contemporary concerns public and private space sustainability ethnic and racial divisions and technology this volume illuminates how global society has imagined American urban life Contributors Klaus Benesch Dolores Hayden David M Lubin Malcolm McCullough Jeffrey L Meikle David E Nye Miles Orvell Andrew Ross Mabel O Wilson Albena Yaneva

Walking and the Aesthetics of Modernity

Klaus Benesch, François Specq, 2016-08-31 This book gathers together an array of international scholars critics and artists concerned with the issue of walking as a theme in modern literature philosophy and the arts Covering a wide array of authors and media from eighteenth century fiction writers and travelers to contemporary film digital art and artists books the essays collected here take a broad literary and cultural approach to the art of walking which has received considerable interest due to the burgeoning field of mobility studies Contributors demonstrate how walking far from constituting a simplistic naïve or transparent cultural script allows for complex visions and reinterpretations of a human's relation to modernity introducing us to a world of many different and changing realities

Faking, Forging, Counterfeiting Daniel Becker, Annalisa Fischer, Yola Schmitz, 2018-03-15 Forgeries are an omnipresent part of our culture and closely related to traditional ideas of authenticity legality authorship creativity and innovation Based on the concept of mimesis this volume illustrates how forgeries must be understood as autonomous aesthetic practices creative acts in themselves rather than as mere rip offs of an original work of art The proceedings bring together research from different scholarly fields They focus on various mimetic practices such as pseudo translations imposters identity theft and hoaxes in different artistic and historic contexts By opening up the scope of the aesthetic implications of fakes this anthology aims to consolidate forging as an autonomous method of creation

Airports, Cities, and the Jet Age Janet R. Bednarek, 2016-08-31 This book explores the relationship between cities and their commercial airports These vital transportation facilities are locally owned and managed and civic leaders and boosters have made them central to often expansive economic development dreams including the construction of architecturally significant buildings However other metropolitan residents have paid a high price for the expansion of air transportation as battles over jet aircraft noise resulted not only in quieter jet engine technologies but profound changes in the metropolitan landscape with the clearance of both urban and suburban neighborhoods And in the wake of 9 11 the US commercial airport has emerged as the place where Americans most fully experience the security regime introduced after those terrorist attacks

Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 China's Urban Revolution Austin Williams,2017-10-19 By 2025 China will have built fifteen new supercities each with 25 million inhabitants It will have created 250 Eco cities as well clean green car free people friendly high tech urban centres From the edge of an impending eco catastrophe we are arguably witnessing history s greatest environmental turnaround an urban experiment that may provide valuable lessons for cities worldwide Whether or not we choose to believe the hype there is little doubt that this is an experiment that needs unpicking understanding and learning from Austin Williams The Architectural Review s China correspondent explores the progress and perils of China s vast eco city program describing the complexities which emerge in the race to balance the environment with industrialisation quality with quantity and the liberty of the individual with the authority of the Chinese state Lifting the lid on the economic and social realities of the Chinese blueprint for eco modernisation Williams tells the story of China s rise and reveals the pragmatic political and economic motives that lurk behind the successes and failures of its eco cities Will these new kinds of urban developments be good humane healthy places Can China find a third way in which humanity nature economic growth and sustainability are reconciled And what lessons can we learn for our own vision of the urban future This is a timely and readable account which explores a range of themes environmental political cultural and architectural to show how the eco city program sheds fascinating light on contemporary Chinese society and provides a lens through which to view the politics of sustainability closer to home
