Retirement Migration Paradoxes Of Ageing Routledge Research In Population And Migration:

Retirement Migration Caroline Oliver,2008 Retirement Migration Caroline Oliver,2012-08-06 The book is the first ethnographic study of international retirement migration and offers a sometimes surprising picture of the potentials seductions and limitations of the lifestyles People envision retirement as freedom from responsibilities through shedding the restrictive shackles of their former selves in a time of life dedicated to fun friendship healthy activity and individual fulfillment However as Oliver documents a number of contradictions underpin the pursuits of such a lifestyle She shows how retirees must balance time use to achieve both freedoms and busy social schedules their activities their relationships and their cultural identities to balance both the security of nationality with the discovery of the new Retirement Migration gives a critical insight into the new ways aging identities are experienced by a growing number of older people in Western societies today Retirement Migration and Precarity in Later Life Marion Repetti,Toni Calasanti,2023-07-19 The last few decades have seen an increase in the migration of ageing people from richer Northern and Western countries to poorer Southern and Eastern countries This book seeks to understand the motivation behind retirement migration and how precarity in later life contributes to this trend Drawing on accounts of retirees from different nations the book examines how welfare policies in their home country and their country of migration interact to shape their experiences of migration It shows how ageism impacts social precarity across different social classes and across economic social and health dimensions It also evaluates how local and global systems of inequalities influence retirement migrants experience providing both opportunities and constraints that differ across countries Retirement Migration to the Global South Cornelia Schwappe,2022-03-16 This book examines the increasing evidence of international retirement migration IRM to countries of the Global South IRM to countries of the Global South points to the increasing global interconnectedness of aging in relatively affluent countries and raises critical questions about its interrelations with global inequalities This book provides a critical analysis of these global interrelations and their intertwinements with global inequalities and addresses the complex and multi layered dimensions and implications of this development It highlights the ambiguous everyday lives of retirement migrants in the countries of destination and the severe impacts on the destination countries that are marked by processes of recolonization and the reproduction enhancement and reconfiguration of social inequalities The growing retirement industry that capitalizes on retirement migration exploiting global differences and structural disadvantages of countries in the Global South is another integral part of this book Handbook on Migration and Ageing Sandra Torres,Alistair Hunter,2023-07-01 This comprehensive Handbook explores the fundamental concepts surrounding the ageing migration nexus It is indispensable reading presenting interdisciplinary research to investigate the unique experiences of older migrants migrant eldercare workers and older people left behind Routledge Handbook of Migration and Development Tanja Bastia,Ronald Skeldon,2020-02-14 The Routledge Handbook of Migration and Development provides an interdisciplinary agenda setting survey of the fields of migration and development bringing together over 60 expert contributors from around the world to chart current and future trends in research on this topic The links between migration and development can be traced back to the post war period if not further yet it is only in the last 20 years that the migration development nexus has risen to prominence for academics and policymakers Starting by mapping the different theoretical approaches to migration and development this book goes on to present cutting edge research in poverty and inequality displacement climate change health family social policy interventions and the key challenges surrounding migration and development While much of the migration literature continues to be dominated by US and British perspectives this volume includes original contributions from most regions of the world to offer alternative non Anglophone perspectives Given the increasing importance of migration in both international development and current affairs the Routledge Handbook of Migration and Development will be of interest both to policymakers and to students and researchers of geography development studies political science sociology demography and development economics

Retirement Home? Ageing Migrant Workers in France and the Question of Return Alistair Hunter, 2018-03-29 This open access book offers new insights into the ageing migration nexus and the nature of home Documenting the hidden world of France's migrant worker hostels it explores why older North and West African men continue to live past retirement age in this sub standard housing Conventional wisdom holds that at retirement labour migrants ought to instead return to their families in home countries where their French pensions would have far greater purchasing power This paradox is the point of departure for a book which transports readers from the banlieues of Paris to the banks of the Senegal River and the villages of the Anti Atlas In intimate ethnographic detail the author brings to life the experiences of these older labour migrants by sharing in the life of the hostels as a resident by observing at close quarters the men's family life on the other side of the Mediterranean as a guest in their homes and even by accompanying them in their travels by bus sea and air The monograph evaluates several theories of migration against rich qualitative data gathered from multiple methods biographical narrative and semi structured interviews participant observation and archival research In the process it offers a thoughtful contribution to broader debates on what it means for migrants to belong and achieve inclusion in society This book has been awarded an honourable mention in the Khayrallah Prize in Migration Studies courtesy of the Moise A Khayrallah Center for Lebanese Diaspora Studies at North Carolina State University For more information please see <https://lebanesestudies.ncsu.edu/awards/scholarly/2018.php> This book has been nominated for the 2019 BSA Philip Abrams Memorial Prize

Migration, Diversity and Inequality in Later Life Dora Sampaio, 2022-08-31 This book is the first comprehensive ethnographic study of the diversity of living and ageing experiences of three groups of older migrants return lifestyle and ageing in place labour migrants from a comparative perspective It explores the motivations ageing experiences and aspirations of transnational ageing migrants in the context of the Portuguese islands of the Azores and situates the research within debates of the ageing migration nexus The book's interdisciplinary approach to transnational embodied and emplaced experiences of ageing facilitates a dialogue between various fields concerned with ageing and mobilities including geography anthropology sociology social gerontology social work and studies of health and wellbeing Elgar Encyclopedia of Global Migration Laura Oso,Natalia Ribas-Mateos,Melissa Moralli,2025-01-09 In recent decades emerging challenges such as increased digitalization of social lives and the ongoing processes of border externalization and internalization have prompted scholars and civil societies to question the ways in which people view frame and experience migration and draw attention to emerging forms of resistance and mobility justice This timely Encyclopedia engages with critical epistemologies and practices to provide a comprehensive examination of the field of global migration activism and cultural production Ageing, Gender, and Labour Migration Aija Lulle,Russell King,2016-08-29 This book explores how the real conditions and subjective conceptions of ageing and well being are transformed when people move from one country to another Focusing on ageing female migrants from Latvia in the UK and other European countries this book is based on fifty life history interviews with women aged 40s 60s Empirical chapters concentrate on functional well being in migration which includes access to the economic citizenship of work income pensions and accommodation and on psychosocial well being and explores Latvian women s experiences of intimate citizenship in migration In addition the authors research challenges the trope of vulnerability which generally surrounds the framing of older migrants lives The study s findings offer policy makers insights into the realities of ageing working migrants and advocates for a more inclusive transnational citizenship better working conditions and ongoing care arrangements for older migrants post retirement either abroad or back home
