

REV IKE'S TEN COMMANDMENTS OF MONEY!

I. Thou shalt not think that money is evil.

But rather, think and say:

Money is totally good. My desire for money is totally good and right.

I want and use money only for good purposes. Thank God for money!

II. Thou shalt not speak evil of money. Thou shalt not say that "money is hard to get, or to hold." Money hath ears and will flee from thee.

Think and say:

Money is wonderful stuff. I see and feel myself having and enjoying more money. I see money flowing into my life with ease.

I see and feel money coming into my life in new exciting ways. I am open and receptive to new, honest money-making ideas.

Thank God for money!

III. Thou shalt do right about money.

Think and say:

I am willing to do right about money. I have no need to do wrong about money, or to do wrong to get money. Thinking right and doing right about money draws more and more money unto me. I pay my bills with joy. I use money with joy. Money has no power over me to make me do evil. I have ALL POWER over money.

IV. Thou shalt give right about money.

Think and say:

I give money to good causes that I believe in. The money that I give becomes Money-Seed and is multiplied back to me many times and in many ways. I give regularly and with a system. Therefore, I am blessed regularly. My giving does not cause me to have less. My giving causes me to have more.

V. Thou shalt not serve money, rather, money shall serve thee.

Think and say:

I am not the servant of money. Money is my loving, obedient servant.

VI. Thou shalt be aware that money loves thee, money loves to fill thy hands and pockets.

Think and say:

Money loves me. Money loves to fill my hands and pockets. Money will not stay away from me. Money loves to serve me.

Money loves for me to enjoy it. The more I use and enjoy money correctly, the more it flows into my life. I love money in its right place. I love the good that I can do with money.

VII. Thou shalt not fear money, that it will corrupt thee. "Only the corruptible can be corrupted." If thy religion cannot stand money, then thy religion is bad – not money.

But rather, think and say:

I have no fear of money. I am not afraid that money will corrupt me. Money cannot make me a worse person.

I am a better person because I have money to meet my needs, to enjoy, and to share. Money is not against my religion. Money cannot come between me and God. I can serve God better with the convenience of money.

VIII. Thou shalt not deny money. If thou deny money, money will deny thee. If thou art accused of having much money, deny it not. Never say, "I don't have any money," even if you don't. "Let the weak say 'I am strong.'"

Think and say:

I make it my business to think, act, and look like I have money. I must become that which I say I am. Therefore, I boldly declare I AM rich! I see it and feel it. I AM rich in Health, Happiness, Love, Success, Prosperity, and Money.

IX. Thou shalt see to it that thy money makes money, no matter how much or how little you have. Thou shalt have "Money Making Money!" Money loves to increase and make thee rich. Money shall work for thee.

Think and say:

I see and feel myself having "Money Making Money!" I see myself having money drawing interest.

I see money working for me; bring me more money in honest, exciting ways.

X. Thou shalt not seek "something for nothing." However, thou shalt make the most of the money.

Think and say:

I realize that there is no such thing as "something for nothing." I avoid all offers that promise "something for nothing."

Therefore, I don't get caught in losing deals. I realize that I cannot get "something for nothing" from God or man. I serve God by right thinking, right doing, and right giving. And I am rewarded "according as my works shall be." I serve mankind in my work – whatever it is. Life pays me according to my thinking, doing, and giving.

Love and Peace,

Rev. Ike
