Reversing Underachievement Among Gifted Black Students Donna Y. Ford, 1996 This text offers a discussion of the effort to end underachievement among gifted Black students and to increase the multicultural and multiracial representation of youth in gifted education

Culturally Diverse and Underserved Populations of Gifted Students Alexinia Y. Baldwin, 2004-03-06 The expert guide to the major issues and most promising strategies for meeting the needs of high ability culturally diverse students Biased testing strategies societal pressures and the attitudes of teachers are but a few of the obstacles that hamper efforts to identify and serve the needs of culturally diverse gifted students The articles in Culturally Diverse and Underserved Populations of Gifted Students address these and other issues and suggest tactics to resolve the under representation of high ability minority students in gifted programs Key features include Alexinia Y Baldwin s review of the literature on underrepresented populations in gifted programs and her recommendations to ensure that the needs of gifted culturally diverse students are met Case studies of culturally diverse high potential students An exploration of community attitudes and peer expectations that discourage high achievement Shedding light on the unique needs of culturally diverse gifted students posing culturally savvy identification strategies and discussing options for appropriate programming and program staffing this reference book is a must have for gifted program developers and gifted specialists alike The ERGE Series The National Association for Gifted Children series Essential Readings in Gifted Education is a 12 volume collection of seminal articles from Gifted Child Quarterly Put the knowledge and power of more than 25 years of research on giftedness and talent into your hands with the leading theories studies and findings the experts in the field have to offer

Increasing Diversity in Gifted Education Monique Felder, Gloria Taradash, Elise Antoine, 2021-09-03 Increasing Diversity in Gifted Education provides guidance for meeting the educational needs of high potential students across many racial ethnic language and economic groups as well as some categories of disability Using this book educators of high potential and gifted students from backgrounds that are traditionally underrepresented and underserved in gifted and advanced instructional settings can guide these students to achieve and make significant contributions to all aspects of American society Practitioners will also gain the information and knowledge needed to increase the identification of culturally linguistically and ethnically diverse CLED and twice exceptional students for gifted education programs and services

Underachievement in Gifted Education Kristina Henry Collins, Javetta Jones Roberson, Fernanda Hellen Ribeiro Piske, 2023-08-30 This book provides an opportunity for researchers professionals and practitioners working directly with gifted individuals to engage with and examine the concept of underachievement of highly capable and talented individuals from different perspectives Chapters written by experts in gifted education from diverse backgrounds explore underachievement in principle illuminate underachievement as a response to written and unwritten policy and practice showcase ranges of intellectual capability outside of traditional academic subjects shift deficit views of not meeting rigid expectations to honoring interests and cultural values of the individual and provide suggested and proven practices and services as solutions to bridge the gaps in achievement and performance for gifted and talented students Expertly blending theory with practice Underachievement in Gifted Education is a must read for all practitioners educators of gifted individuals and researchers seeking more opportunities to help students align how they choose to exhibit their talent and efforts with external and internal expectations personal interests and cultural values to reach their maximum potential Building on Resilience Fred A. Bonner II, 2023-07-03 How do we fix the leaky educational pipeline into a conduit of success for Black males That the issue is critical is demonstrated by the statistics that only 10% of Black males in the United States are proficient in 8th grade reading only 52% graduate from high school within four years and only 35 percent graduate from college This book uniquely examines the trajectory of Black males through the educational pipeline from pre school through college In doing so it not only contributes significantly to the scholarship on the experiences of this population but bridges the gap between theory and practice to provide frameworks and models that will improve these young men s educational outcomes throughout their educational journeys A compelling feature of the book is that that it does not treat Black males as homogeneous but recognizes the diversity that exists among Black males in various educational settings It demonstrates the need to recognize students intersectionalities and individual characteristics as an essential preliminary to developing practices to improve outcomes at every educational stage Throughout the contributing authors also focus on the strategies and experiences of Black males who achieve academic excellence examining growth producing and asset based practices that can be sustained and that build upon the recognition that these males have agency and possess qualities such as resilience that are essential to their learning and development The frameworks and models that conclude each chapter are equally commendable to K 12 educators and administrators higher education faculty student affairs practitioners and administrators and policymakers for whom templates are provided for rectifying the continuing inequities of our educational system Black Males in Secondary and Postsecondary Education Erik M. Hines, Edward C. Fletcher Jr, 2023-12-13 Black Males in Secondary and Postsecondary Education contributes to the existing literature on this population with a focus on teaching mentoring advising and counseling Black boys and men from preschool to graduate professional school and beyond into their careers Gifted Children of Color Around the World James L. Moore III, Joy Lawson Davis, 2016-07-25 This edited volume sheds light on the unique challenges trends and intersecting issues related to identifying intellectual potential of children of color around the world The editors bring together expert scholars from around the world who have a vested interest in gifted children of color Charting A New Course in Gifted Education Anne L. Corn, 2017-09-29 Highlighting the work of 17 distinguished national authors this special issue suggests a new course for the field of gifted education one that emphasizes the individual and suggests that the focus of gifted education be dynamic and contextual From legal perspectives to changing concepts of giftedness talent and assesement from using new technologies to identify differences in brain structures to using new research paradigms to reveal the nature of giftedness from compelling reasons for early intervention to tailoring opportunities for college ready gifted persons this two part issues of PJE exposes new dimensions along which paths between previously held beliefs and practices and new courses for thought and action can be forged A parental perspective is also included African American Fathers' Involvement in their Children's Education Tasha L. Alston,2021-11-05 The literature tells us that parental involvement affects academic achievement However much of the literature on parental involvement focuses on the involvement of mothers with limited information about the involvement of fathers especially African American fathers The parental involvement literature on African American fathers is insufficient compared to their White counterparts African American fathers do not have a voice in the literature on parental involvement A racial and gender bias exists in the literature on parental involvement that marginalizes the voice of African American fathers African American Fathers Involvement in their Children s Education seeks to understand the relationship that African American fathers have with the education of their children by using Critical Race Theory as a theoretical framework to privilege the voice of African American fathers This text focuses on the contributions that African American fathers make in the lives of their children and families challenges the master deficient narrative and humanizes African American fathers This book purposefully and unapologetically portrays African American fathers as the brilliant excellent human beings they are
