Reviving The Congregation Pastoral Leadership In A Changing Context:

Reviving the Congregation Michael W. Foss, 2014 Beyond Church Walls Dr. Richard Rouse, 2016-05-19 Pastoral care has been traditionally understood as pastoral acts administered to individuals or small groups by an ordained or lay religious practitioner. As congregations in the twenty first century begin to reclaim the missional nature of church, this view must be broadened to include care and concern for the needs of the larger community. A missional perspective of pastoral care embraces the notion that all of God's people, not just trained professionals, are called to partner in the healing and redemption of the world. In Beyond Church Walls, Rick Rouse sets out to articulate precisely what such an approach to pastoral care looks like and the substantial impact it can have on congregations and communities. A skilled teacher and pastor with deep experience in real communities, Rouse leads readers through the changing realities of the twenty first century and to new ways for missional churches to succeed in offering pastoral care for the whole community. Four Ministries, One Jesus Richard A. Burrige, 2019-01-17 Combining the skills of a leading biblical scholar with the wisdom derived from years spent training candidates for ordination, Richard Burrige offers rich reflections on the four gospel portraits of Jesus and shows how they not only inform the calling to ordained ministry but also help sustain the practice of Christian ministry in its various dimensions. Four Ministries, One Jesus is for all who feel called to a life of Christian ministry and want to ground their calling in the teaching and example of Jesus as provided in the four gospels. Burrige helps readers consider vital questions such as how to sustain reading Bible study and theological reflection in ministry, how to extend pastoral care to people outside as well as inside the Christian community, how to care for self and family, and how to stay attuned to the Spirit by cultivating a fresh and vigorous life of prayer. Women, Church, and Leadership: New Paradigms Eunjo Mary Kim, Deborah Beth Creamer, 2012-04-06 This book is about leadership, a scholarly and pastoral response to the urgent demand for the renewal of the contemporary Christian church. It challenges readers to articulate the identity and vision of the church in new ways and encourages them to revitalize their ministry with fresh insight and passion from women's perspectives. The eight essays written by female scholars in relation to various areas of theological study and the nine pastoral responses to the essays written by ministers from seven different denominations, based on their experiences of actual ministerial settings, provide new paradigms of church leadership, theologically profound, practically relevant, and historically timely. This volume, a product of a collaborative process between academia and church, promises to be a most useful resource to renew the leadership of the church and its vocational commitment to the transformation of the church and society. Transforming Pastoral Leadership Quentin P. Kinnison, 2016-05-20 For many congregations, change creates discomfort. Pastoral leaders are often expected to be experts who manage and control realities beyond their expertise, experience, and ability. That expectation, a product of modern approaches to leadership, views the pastor as responsible for maintaining the status quo. Transforming Pastoral Leadership responds to this context by challenging readers to rediscover key biblical themes around the shepherding metaphor as well as key theological themes steeped in our historical faith narratives Readers are challenged to consider the origins of our dominant leadership practices and to reconsider how Christ's preeminence as the leader of his church requires us to reconstruct leadership practices that are faithful to his preeminence To assist congregations Transforming Pastoral Leadership suggests two processes that might help congregations discern God's missional promptings as they move forward into God's future and experience conflict as opportunities for transformation

The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions, Volume V Mark P. Hutchinson, Mark Hutchinson, 2018 Volume V extends the study of the Oxford History of Dissenting Protestant Traditions series into the twentieth century following the spatial cultural and intellectual changes in dissenting identity and practice as these once European traditions globalized and settled down in other places

Restoring Christ's Church Dr Michael S Springer, 2013-06-28 This book examines the struggle for Protestant consensus and unity through the work of John a Lasco 1499-1560 It is only in recent years that scholars have begun to recognize the importance of Lasco as one of the leading figures of the European Reformation and a pivotal figure between Lutheran and Reformed theologians The Polish reformer was among the most dynamic church organizers of the sixteenth century dedicated to healing the divisions among evangelicals and searching for the key to Protestant unity in the example of the Apostolic Church It was to this end that he published the Forma ac ratio in 1555 a work that recorded the rites and practices of the London Strangers Church of which he had been the first superintendent and to provide a model for uniting the disparate Protestant communities on the Continent Although some recent works have focused on aspects of Lasco's early career in Germany and England this is the first book to provide a comprehensive analysis of the Forma ac ratio and the reformer's reasons for writing it This study also puts Lasco's distinct model for Protestant churches into the wider European context and assesses his impact on the struggle for unity through an examination of his correspondence the reaction to his writings and his influence on Protestant congregations across Europe

Theology of Reconciliation in the Context of Church Relations Rula Khoury Mansour, 2020-01-31 Christians are called to be peacemakers in a world rife with conflict but how should Christians respond when the source of strife is not outside the church but within it Built on an in depth analysis of three Palestinian church splits this text examines the cultural and theological implications of intra church conflict in Arab evangelical communities in Israel Translating Miroslav Volf's formative theology of reconciliation into her contemporary Palestinian context Dr Rula Khoury Mansour provides a critical evaluation of both Volf's theory and Palestinian peacemaking models Through her research and analysis Dr Mansour develops a Middle Eastern theology of reconciliation and encourages congregations around the world to develop greater cultural and theological awareness in their quest to experience lasting peace within their churches and wider communities
